THE SHOT MISSED.

A Strange Incident On a Highway Near Lost Creek.

Constable Joe Peters, of Wm. Penn, was a visitor to town to-day and in conversation with a reporter told a story of a peculiar shooting affair he witnessed last night. He stated that between nine and ten o'clock last night he was walking along the highway towards Lost Creek No. 2. Several yards ahead of him he observed the notorious Joe Larkin and concluded to watch the man. Later developments presented Larkin in the role of a victim, and not as a felon.

A BEAT FRUSTRATED.

One Man Who Has a Surplus of Audacity in Stock.

Clemens Karbitz, a Pole, was in Justice Shoenmaker's office last night settling a case which had been lodged against him. During the progress of the negotiations Karbitz received a ten dollar bill from his hearing board to pay the costs and was to give a power of attorney as security. While the paper was being drawn up Karbitz slipped out of the office with the money. He was soon missed and, after some searching, found hiding in a yard opposite the Justice's office.

F. & R. Conductor Killed.

Robert Wheeler, of Port Carbon, was run down by a P. & R. passenger train at Palo Alto last evening, receiving injuries from which he died two hours later. The unfortunate man was 32 years old, and was one of the most capable employees of the company. He was conductor of a shifting engine. He was walking from Palo Alto to his home in Port Carbon, on the railroad track. He was on the north-bound train, when he heard the passenger train approaching and fled to the south-bound track. This was a fatal mistake, as the train was crossed over to the south bound track because of the heavy coal traffic. This is the third fatal railroad accident that has occurred at Palo Alto within a short time.

To Study Medicine.

John D. Trezise at noon to-day left for Brooklyn, N. Y. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. John G. Davis, and their location will be a permanent one. The principal object of Mr. Trezise's removal is to enter the New York University, where he will take up the study of medicine in its branches. Mr. Trezise was among the most highly esteemed citizens of the town and many will regret to hear of his departure, although pleased with the step he has taken for his personal advancement. He was employed at the Shenandoah City colliery office for many years and leaves an enviable record there. Mrs. Davis was also held in high esteem and her departure from the town is deeply regretted.

HEARING RESUMED!

The Tabor Creditors Make Further Investigation.

MR. TABOR AGAIN ON THE STAND

The Attorneys for the Creditors Contemplate Putting Witnesses Upon the Stand Before the Hearing Adjourns—All the Counsel Present.

Examination of witnesses was this afternoon resumed in the cases of Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. of Chicago, and E. E. Rinn's Sons, of Allentown, against Chief Burgess A. P. Tabor and Justus Saydlowski on the proceedings to dissolve the attachments issued against property held by Mrs. Saydlowski and claimed to have been sold to her by Mr. Tabor. The trial was fixed for two o'clock, but it was much later when the lawyers got together. M. M. Burke, Esq., was present in behalf of Mr. Tabor, George J. Wadlinger, Esq., of Pottsville, in behalf of Mrs. Saydlowski, John F. Whalen, Esq., in behalf of Swift & Co., and P. B. Adams, Esq., of New York, and W. F. Ramsey, Esq., of Mahanoy City, for Armour & Co. and Rinn's Sons. S. G. M. Hallowell, Esq., was also present for creditors.

It was understood this afternoon that the examinations are to be pressed by the creditors without regard to the number of witnesses, their counsel having concluded that they can eventually produce evidence that will justify the extent of the defenses attachments. The counsel for the defense are equally confident that the court will dissolve the attachments, however, and say that the real facts are just as stated by Mr. Tabor when he was on the witness stand the other day—that his failure was a complete and honest one, and in making the sale his action was justifiable and entirely bona fide.

Mr. Tabor was recalled to the stand by Mr. Whalen, who proceeded in a line of cross-examination. Tabor testified: I still have my book accounts and, as I stated before, I have collected but $200 on them since my sale to Mrs. Saydlowski. My lawyers have some of them in their hands for collection. I have made a little effort to collect on the accounts myself, but have not been able to do so much time to do so. I was not offered $4,000 for my three stores a short time before I sold to Mrs. Saydlowski and never refused any such offer. I never spoke to Mr. J. A. Murphy, manager for Swift & Co. at Mahanoy City, on any such subject.

Mr. Tabor was pressed by Mr. Whalen as to when he received money from his Minersville and Mahanoy City shops for sales made at those places for the month previous to the sale. Mr. Tabor said he could not recollect and Mr. Whalen sent him out to get his books of the three shops to refresh his recollection. After a delay of a few minutes the books were produced. The book of the Minersville shop showed that in August the sales amounted to $1,829.97 and the receipts $1,117.06. The book of the Mahanoy City store for August amounted to $2,335.41. The sales and receipts of money amounted to $1,078.04.

Dyer Has Skipped Out.

George Dyer, of Mt. Carmel, the Italian who was shot on the evening of September 18th by Conductor Wise, of the Shamokin Traction Co., has fully recovered from his injuries, and has skipped out for parts unknown. Wise was arrested for shooting Dyer on the above date, and the case will come up at the next term of court. It is claimed by the defense that in leaving the car Dyer fired a shot at the conductor, whereupon the latter fired two shots at Dyer, one of these taking effect. The friends of the Italian, however, say the conductor is to blame for the shooting.

Charles New, Fifth ward, was attacked on non-payment of taxes and non-assessment. There was something of a mix-up, as the man's name was not properly on the assessment book, his brother's name being there with the first name of the witness scratched out and the brother's name written over it. The court held he was not assessed, and he answered he voted the Republican ticket.

Benjamin Broxton, Fifth ward, was attacked on non-payment of taxes, but was found all right and withdrawn.

Robert J. Barry, Fifth ward, paid taxes, but was not assessed in either '93 and '94. The witness could not remember what ticket he voted.

George Fluck, Fifth ward, was also not on the assessment list. He voted for Mr. Lyon. Wm. H. Schuchel, Fourth ward, was not assessed in '94 and had paid '93 taxes too soon and '95 taxes too late to entitle him to vote. He voted the Republican ticket.

George Frost, Fifth ward, paid no tax until after the election of '96. He could not tell what ticket he voted.

Henry Gilbert, Fifth ward, had paid no '95 or '94, but having been assessed. He voted the Republican ticket.

Jacob Lillig, Fifth ward, presented a tax receipt dated October 1, 1896, for his '94 taxes. He said he had also paid '93 taxes, but did not know when. He was therefore told to come down to-day again and bring his receipt for '95 taxes along, he having said he had one at home.

Thomas Lathlain, Fifth ward, paid a '93 tax, but was not assessed that year. He voted the Republican ticket.

Alexander Jones, Fifth ward, paid no taxes in time to entitle him to vote in '95. He voted the Republican ticket.

ABDUCTED FROM PARIS

Another Serious Charge Against Paillesseau, the Diamond Thief.

THE GIRL LOCATED IN CHICAGO.

She Was Drugged in a Paris Cafe and Taken to England, and Thence She Was Brought to This Country by Paillesseau and a Female Companion.

New York, Oct. 13.—Acting Captain McCluskey, of the detective bureau, has discovered the habitat of Louise Ripp, 16 years old, who was abducted from her home in Corbell, near Paris, in March last.

The girl went to Paris to the Mardi Gras festival. She was accosted by a man known to the police here as "Edouard," and told that her uncle wanted to see her in a cafe. When she got to the cafe, it is alleged, Henri Paillesseau was introduced to her as a friend of her uncle, who had been sent to tell her that her uncle would be delayed for half an hour. Then these men drugged Louise and conveyed her to England. With the aid of a female confederate they got her on board a steamer at Southampton, and as the daughter of Paillesseau and his alleged wife were landed in this city, Louise fell ill while here, and was sent to Saratoga to recuperate.

"Edouard" then made her go to Chicago with him, where he took her to the house of Lena Demerville, who was formerly in New York. Having traced her to Chicago, Captain McCluskey communicated with the chief of police, and on Saturday the chief's detectives found the girl. M. Broutvert has communicated with Acting Consul Vielhomme, of Chicago, telling him to take charge of the girl. "Edouard" is under surveillance, and the French consul general will ask the United States authorities to help in the matter, but nothing will be done until M. Vielhomme is heard from.

Paillesseau is now under arrest in Havre, charged with complicity in the robbery of diamond jewelry, the property of Miss Susan De Forest Day, of this city, owner of the steam yacht Sythian.

JUSTICE FIELD TO RETIRE.

Attorney General McKenna Will Succeed Him as Supreme Court Justice.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Associate Justice Stephen Johnson Field, of the United States supreme court, has made formal application to President McKinley to be retired from the bench under the law allowing members of that court to be retired when 70 years old. This statement is made upon the highest authority, and also the statement that Attorney General Joseph McKenna, of California, will be nominated to succeed him on Dec. 6, when congress convenes, five days after the retirement of Justice Field takes effect.

Fugitive Revolutionary Leaders.

Tasachua, Mexico, Oct. 13.—Puentes and Morales, two leaders of the revolution in Guatemala, have reached here, traveling day and night, having abandoned their country on learning that Barrios had sent a large force against them. Many others, filled with panic and dreading the vengeance of Barrios, have left all their property and families behind and have reached this place. There are at this moment in this department more than a thousand refugees. Nobody expected such a result when the revolution began under such brilliant auspices and the revolutionists were in possession of so many strong places and had the general approval of the people. Refugees know their property will be confiscated.

Explorer Nivon's Mission.

New York, Oct. 13.—William Nivon, the explorer who obtained a concession from the Mexican government giving him the exclusive right for five years to explore for archeological objects over a territory of 8,000 square miles, left New York yesterday for search in the state of Guerrero, in the region where he discovered the prehistoric city of Omilteme. Mr. Nivon hopes to obtain many articles of scientific value bearing upon the ancient history of America.

Goodwin Sentenced to Death.

Wellsboro, Pa., Oct. 13.—Yesterday afternoon Judge Mitchell sentenced Walter E. Goodwin, who murdered his wife at Mansfield, Pa., on Sept. 4, to be hanged. The day will be named by the governor. Gertrude Taylor, the girl who was with him when he committed the deed, and whose evidence made his conviction a certainty, was allowed to go on her own recognizance until the next term of court, when Bert Ogden, who is charged with complicity in the murder, will be tried.

WILKINSON'S STORE NEWS.

We haven't time to write a fair description of the great stocks of the latest styles just purchased last week in New York—suffice it to say we have a larger, better and cheaper stock than any of our competitors.

Why?

Shenandoah's big store can't afford to follow anyone's lead—we are always best advertised by our imitators—and we confidently believe no such stocks exist as are shown in our immense show room. Doing the largest business in our line, it is reasonable to suppose we can purchase large stocks at special prices. The crowds of pleased buyers from all parts of the county daily attest the truth of our always reliable advertisements.
