DRAGNET OF CREDITORS

Efforts to Sustain Attachments in the Tabor Cases.

SZYDLOWSKI UNDER HEAVY FIRE

The Examination Directed to Show That Neither the Witness Nor His Wife Had Money With Which to Buy Tabor's Business—Szydowski Shows Wealth.

There is an air of determination on the part of the counsel for the creditors in the case against Justyna Szydowski and A. P. Tabor that forebodes a prolonged contest in the courts. One gentleman interested has stated that the case will be made a test one and neither time or expense will be spared. Counsel for Mrs. Szydowski and Tabor's receipts were greatly in proportion to his outstanding accounts than the latter testified to at the last session. A recapitulation of the figures adduced showed that the sales at the three shops for August amounted to $7,434. During that month Tabor drew $5,747.22 from the bank. Tabor said he supposed he paid money out. On August 24th he deposited $1,257.27, received from a Minersville shop. That money was subsequently paid out. The amount represented deposits from the 8th to the 24th of August. Mr. Tabor was then asked to enumerate the checks that were outstanding and for payment of which he borrowed the $1,000 from Mrs. Tabor on August 24th. He answered by enumerating checks he had given to Swift & Co., Armour & Co., Rinn's Sons and Molinsky & Sons, aggregating about $1,400.

Anthony Szydowski, the husband of Mrs. Justyna Szydowski, to whom Tabor sold his stores, was next called and examined by Mr. Whalen. He testified that he came to Shenandoah to open a grocery store, where he was in partnership with the butcher before. He was in the business four months, when his partner bought him out for $1,000. Before that he was in the butcher business for himself in Baltimore. Was there a year and a half. His wife started the business in Shenandoah, because he had an agreement that he should go into business in Pennsylvania for ten years. That agreement was made when Frank Kosloski, his Hasleton partner, bought him out. His Shenandoah purchases of meat run from $1,500 to $3,500 a month. His wife keeps no books. He keeps all the business in his head. His wife keeps the bank account. All the business is cash. No credit business.

Mr. Whalen then took up the Szydowski bank book and conducted an examination that indicated efforts to show that the money Mrs. Szydowski had used to buy out Tabor had been given to her, or her husband, by Tabor for the purpose. If such was the aim it failed. When Mr. Hanson asked the witness if he had any money when he came to this country six years ago and if he had any when he located at Baltimore the replies were that he could not understand English. A lengthy discussion followed, during which Mr. Burke suggested that an interpreter be taken into the case, but the witness said he had no money. He declared that the money paid Tabor was his own. His witness has closed up the Minersville store since the sale was made to his wife. Mr. Tabor has nothing to do with the Shenandoah store, or any other part of the business now. The Mahanoy City store has also been closed. Mrs. Tabor has nothing to do with the Shenandoah store. For the month after the sale the witness said the money he brought and his help and other expenses for the three stores amounted to $2,303.12, and his receipts were $2,107.59, making a deficiency of $195.53. Witness said his wife had more than $2,000 when she came to Shenandoah from Hasleton. It was all put into the business she started here and she has no money. She had more than $2,000 when she loaned Tabor money.

The case was taken up again in the office of M. M. Burke, Esq., this morning and Mr. Szydowski resumed his seat on the witness stand. The examination opened with questions directed to the career of the witness in Hasleton. When Mr. Hanson asked the witness if he had any money when he came to this country six years ago and if he had any when he located at Baltimore the replies were that he could not understand English. A lengthy discussion followed, during which Mr. Burke suggested that an interpreter be taken into the case, but the witness said he had no money. He declared that the money paid Tabor was his own. His witness has closed up the Minersville store since the sale was made to his wife. Mr. Tabor has nothing to do with the Shenandoah store, or any other part of the business now. The Mahanoy City store has also been closed. Mrs. Tabor has nothing to do with the Shenandoah store. For the month after the sale the witness said the money he brought and his help and other expenses for the three stores amounted to $2,303.12, and his receipts were $2,107.59, making a deficiency of $195.53. Witness said his wife had more than $2,000 when she came to Shenandoah from Hasleton. It was all put into the business she started here and she has no money. She had more than $2,000 when she loaned Tabor money.

While returning from Mahanoy City this morning with a load of machinery, Frank Schmicker, of Hinchelberry alley, was suddenly prostrated by an attack of vertigo. He remained unconscious until he arrived home, accompanied by Edward Danks. His illness is not serious, and this afternoon was reported greatly improved.

Rehearsal.

There will be a rehearsal of the dramatic curiosa "Rebecca" in the English Baptist church this evening. All those participating are requested to attend.

LYON-DUNN CONTEST.

Found Sixteen Illegal Votes For the Former Yesterday.

The Lyon-Dunn contest court was in session again yesterday, when additional witnesses from Shenandoah were heard. There are more to follow to-day. Sixteen illegal Lyon votes were found yesterday. Jacob Lilly, Fifth ward, Shenandoah, who was called yesterday and sent home to bring down his '93 tax receipt, appeared as soon as court re-convened after dinner yesterday with a receipt for the '93 taxes paid on October 4th, 1894. He was excused. Jacob Bender, who was subpoenaed Tuesday, but was unable to be present owing to illness, was called. He was attacked on non-payment of taxes and non-assessment, but was found all right and withdrawn. P. W. Bierstein, Third ward, Shenandoah, was found all right on taxes and excused. Benjamin Daddow, Third ward, Shenandoah, had paid no taxes for '93 or '94 until after the '93 election. He voted for Mr. Lyon. Charles Evans, Third ward, Shenandoah, was all right on taxes and assessment, and withdrawn. William Hoenberger, Third ward, Shenandoah, was all right on taxes and excused. R. D. Hagenbuch and Wm. H. Nolewender, both of the Third ward, were also found all right on taxes and withdrawn. Edward Brown, Fourth ward, Shenandoah, was assessed for '93 and '94, but he had paid taxes those years. He voted the Republican ticket. Lewis Lebe, Fourth ward, Shenandoah, had paid taxes for '93 and '94, but was not assessed for any taxes for those years. He voted the Republican ticket. Henry Jarvis, Third ward, allowed to go; taxes paid. E. Adams, Third ward; paid taxes Oct. 6 and 8, '94; allowed to go. Michael Neiswender, Third ward; taxes paid Oct. '94; allowed to go. Augustus Schaub, Fourth ward; allowed to go.

Obituary.

Joseph Meltzer, a well known resident of Ashland, died yesterday after a long illness. He was seventy-six years old. He was a single man.

Joseph Benedict, of Jacksons, lost a seven-month-old child by death yesterday. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon. Interment in the German Catholic cemetery, Mahanoy City.

At her residence in Mahanoy Plains yesterday afternoon, at 4:15 o'clock, Mrs. John Hanson succumbed to nervous prostration, after an illness of four weeks. Deceased is survived by her husband and two daughters, Lillie, aged 17 years, and Emma, aged 6 years. It is generally supposed that her death was greatly hastened by the recent death of her son, John, which occurred suddenly while attending a wedding at Reading about eight weeks ago. The funeral will take place on Saturday with services at the house. The remains will be placed on the 1:21 p. m. P. & R. train and taken to Pottsville, where interment will be made in the Charles Baber cemetery. Mrs. Hanson was a sister of Borough Surveyor W. G. Gregory.

The Schoppe orchestra will hold their usual dancing school at Robbins' opera house on Saturday evening.

A Russian Exile.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD. MAHANAY PLAINS, Oct. 14.—Information has been received here by his late partner in the firm of Bolinski & Co., from Russia, to the effect that Joseph Jerozovic, who left Mahanoy Plains about two years ago to return to his native home in Russia, has been exiled to Siberia. Jerozovic, when he left this place, had in his possession between $15,000 and $20,000. It appears that when he arrived in Russia he established a newspaper agency, and in some manner violated the laws of that country in the circulation of seditious literature. He was arrested and sentenced to ten years hard labor in the Siberian mines, and it will require 18 months, under heavy guard, to make the trip. Jerozovic is 47 years old, and his physical condition is such that his friends here have grave doubts of him being able to serve out his sentence. Those of his nationality here express much sympathy for the unfortunate man.

While returning from Mahanoy City this morning with a load of machinery, Frank Schmicker, of Hinchelberry alley, was suddenly prostrated by an attack of vertigo. Competent salespeople in attendance.

R. F. GILL, MAIN STREET. LLOYD STREET.

If you expect to buy anywhere below cost price and get good value and styles, you will be mistaken. No man can do it. If, however, you want to get the best at the lowest possible percentage of the profit, we can accommodate you. We believe, and will prove to you that we will not be undersold by any one in the business. Our facilities are equal to the best. Our line is the best obtainable. Our styles the latest and finishes the finest. Our prices are away down below the grade of goods we sell. Don't pay twice as much somewhere else, as you would pay us for the same goods.

WILKINSON'S STORE NEWS.

We haven't time to write a fair description of the great stocks of the latest styles just purchased last week in New York—suffice it to say we have a larger, better and cheaper stock than any of our competitors.

Why?

Shenandoah's big store can't afford to follow anyone's lead—we are always best advertised by our imitators—and we confidently believe no such stocks exist as are shown in our immense show room. Doing the largest business in our line, it is reasonable to suppose we can purchase large stocks at special prices. The crowds of pleased buyers from all parts of the county daily attest the truth of our always reliable advertisements.
