SAVANNAH claims to have nearly banished malarial fever in that city by a thorough system of drainage. Nothing pays a city or town better than good sanitation.

THE Lehigh Valley Railroad Company is discharging employees by the score. This would seem to indicate that the revival has somehow missed the Lehigh Valley.

ALLEGHENY has passed an ordinance to abolish smoking. That municipality is going to have a hard time in enforcing that piece of legislation.

THE assertion of a London paper that the Queen "holds almost pessimistic views in regard to the stability and future of the United States" needs confirmation. It is not in harmony with her lifelong attitude toward this country.

DISCOVERIES of gold have been reported this year in twelve different states and several territories. These, with large importations of gold, give this country a peculiar strength in regard to the gold standard.

EVIDENCE accumulates that the leaders of the silver wing of the Democracy, in their mad search for some new bid to catch the unthinking voters, are drifting rapidly toward single-taxism and socialism. Henry George, who is the leading representative of these ideas, is gloomily exhibiting the indorsement of a large number of members of the Democratic National Committee, in which they pledge him the moral strength—whatever that may be—of their endorsement and support. Curiously, on the very day of publication of Mr. George's collection of political curiosities, the author of one of them, Committeeman Shanklin, of Indiana, is quoted as greeting Mr. Bryan at Evansville as "the next President of the United States." Is the scheme Bryan and George in 1900 on a platform of single tax, debtless to law, and socialism?

THE kiss still continues to be a source of numerous news paragraphs. In New York a young man shot and fatally wounded his uncle because the older man tried to kiss his niece-in-law contrary to her wishes. In London a woman has just died from hydrophobia caused by permitting her pet dog to kiss her lips. In Holland the court of appeals has decided in a case brought against a young man who assaulted a young woman with a kiss that it is no offense to kiss a man, "as in the nature of a warm mark of sympathy." If that Holland decision should stand as a precedent in this country pretty girls would be subject to assaults without number. It is remarkable how the "sympathy" of a young man becomes aroused at the sight of a pretty feminine face.

THE mention of W. R. Andrews, secretary of the Republican state committee, as the party nominee for Lieutenant Governor, in these columns several days ago, has met with much favor at the hands of the leading party journals throughout the state. Mr. Andrews has never sought public office, and it is doubtful whether he could be induced to accept the nomination. We do not believe, however, that he could refuse in the face of such universal demand in the hands of his party associates. He has been a toiler in the ranks for a number of years, and is to-day recognized as one of the most faithful and valued men in the ranks of the Republican party of the state. In every county in the state he has hundreds of ardent admirers who would rally to his support, and as the party nominee we predict for him one of the largest majorities given a candidate in this state.

A GREAT SURPRISE IS IN STORE
for those who will go today and get a package of GRAINS-O. It takes the place of coffee and tea, but it is not made from any of the usual coffee or tea plants. It is a full of health and can be given to the children as well as the adult with great benefit. It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha or Java coffee. It is also delicious. A cup of GRAINS-O is better for the system than a cup of coffee, because it is permanent. When it breaks down GRAINS-O builds up. Ask your grocer for GRAINS-O. 15c. and 50c.

WHAT IS YOUR TRADE?
Each Trade or Occupation Has Its Special Disease.
It is well known among medical men that certain diseases are more readily developed in certain occupations than in others. That each occupation has its attendant physical weakness. Engineers, railroad men and similar occupations suffer mostly from kidney troubles and men who are often exposed to the weather suffer from rheumatism, while clerks and professional men, in fact the army of people whose business keeps them indoors, are oftentimes great sufferers from indigestion and constipation. In this connection the following letter is of interest to people whose occupation will not allow sufficient outdoor exercise.

COLLAPSE IN A THEATER

"Dangers of a Great City" Exemplified in Real Life.
THREE KILLED, THIRTY INJURED
The Wood in the Roof Trusses Had Shrunk, and These Gave Way and Pulled the Big Dome Down. Small Loss of Life Miraculous.
Cincinnati, Oct. 15.—The Dangers of a Great City, on the stage of Robinson's Opera House last night, was cut short in its performance by a tragic realization of the actual dangers of a great city. The house was fairly well filled but not crowded. A little before 8:30 o'clock a lady in the audience says she heard a rasping noise, which continued for five minutes before the catastrophe. She gave it little attention, thinking it was part of the performance. Presently the plastering began to fall in several places at first not enough to alarm the timid or cautious of the audience. Soon the plastering began to shower down in great chunks. It came from the ceiling which supported the dome. There was a rush from the gallery, which was not very well filled. The balcony was soon emptied. Those in the dress circle retired as promptly as possible, and strange to say, without an apparent panic. The crowding of those to the door obstructed the passage of people from the parquet, which accounts in a measure for the number of casualties. Nobody expected at that moment any other danger than from the falling plastering. Suddenly, with a great crash, the great central truss of the ceiling, 80 feet long and 30 feet wide, came plunging down. The ends of it struck on the two gallery wings and forced it up in such a manner as to send it down into the parquet with a great scattering of joists and timbers. Nothing on the stage was harmed.
