NEW YORK MAYORALTY.

Mr. Van Wyck's Acceptance of the Tammany Nomination.

WITH THE BETTING FRATERNITY.

Still Offering Odds on Van Wyck, but Colonel Swords Succeeds in Placing Three Thousand Dollars on Tracy as Against Low.

New York, Oct. 20.—The letter of Robert A. Van Wyck, Tammany candidate for mayor, accepting the nomination, was given out last night. It discusses municipal affairs solely. A large part of the letter arraigns the present city administration for extravagance and calls attention to the discomforts the people are enduring through delay in street improvements now in progress. Mr. Van Wyck then takes up the city's alleged grievances against the state legislature, saying of the Raines law:

"In the Raines liquor law we have an example of a class legislation utterly without public sanction. It was imposed upon our citizens against their vigorous and united protest. It has failed to secure a single one of the advantages urged in justification of its enactment. It has only succeeded, by dispensing with local supervision and control, in removing the salutary restraints which heretofore protected the reputable dealer from the open rivalry of the dive keeper."

Mr. Van Wyck pledges himself to favor the increase of school houses, the establishment of a rapid transit system, more bridges across East river, more parks, better docks, $1 gas and enforcement of the eight hour law. He says further that the municipality itself should both own and control its franchises.

"Claim everything" has seemingly been adopted as the motto of many of the political master mechanics of New York for the pending campaign. The most sweeping is that made by Messrs. Sheehan and Croker, representing the Tammany organization, and which has the practical endorsement of the betting men about town, who have all along been offering odds on Van Wyck. The claim, however, that the Tammany ticket will receive 250,000 out of the 475,000 votes registered in greater New York is scouted by other party leaders, some of whom do not hesitate to assert that the prediction will be reversed more or less completely in favor of the ticket they are advocating. Next to Tammany's the most confident predictions are those given out at Republican headquarters, where the tone is most hopeful that the outcome of the election will be the choice of General H. F. Tracy for mayor. The adherents of Seth Low are professing confidence that their man will be elected, and the Georgeites are professedly hopeful of winning the day.

Colonel Henry L. Swords, sergeant-at-arms to the Republican national committee, visited Wall street yesterday and offered to bet any part of $25,000 at even money that General Tracy will poll more votes than Seth Low. He succeeded in placing about $3,000 of it among members of the Stock Exchange and half as much more with several of the brokers on the "curb." The colonel announced his intention to visit the bulls and bears again.

"This is only a small part of the Tracy money lying around loose," said the colonel. "The only trouble is we can't find any Low money to put it up against."

Van Wyck still leads in the betting on the Stock Exchange. Odds are good as 2 to 1 that he will win out.

Allen W. Thurman, son of the late Allen G. Thurman, has written a letter to Henry George, which sincerely wishes George success. Mr. Thurman was formerly chairman of the Ohio state Democratic committee.

Henry George last night addressed an assemblage of more than a thousand people at Lion Park Hall, on the upper west side of this city. Ex-Postmaster Dayton also spoke. After telling of his candidacy for the mayoralty 11 years ago, on the identical platform on which he is running now, Mr. George said:

"I will not be cheated and counted out. The great time has come when the people are interested in this campaign, and I am honored by being asked to be the standard bearer of the Democracy. If the people don't want me, then all right. There are two men in this fight with me of whom I am proud. One is Charles W. Dayton. No one will say of him that he is a dreamer or a man who cannot be trusted with practical affairs."

Mr. George and Mr. Dayton afterward addressed a second large meeting in Harlem. During his speech Mr. George said:

"Mr. McHugh, of the longshoremen, told me he had seen a payroll at Hazleton, Pa., and there were on it names of men who drew only 5 to 20 cents a day. Think of it, men doing the hard work of these coal miners for this miserable pittance. And this was not paid in money, but in store orders. These were the men who were shot down at Hazleton.

"Scientists tell us that ages before man came to this world these black diamonds, these sparks of the sun, had been placed in the ground for the use of man. To whom do they belong? Our laws have made them the property of individuals. This company and that company have been given the right to use them, own them and mine them with the men to whom they pay the mite, and to keep them at it comes in the law—a sheriff, backed by rifles. This is America as it has been made. This is our boasted democracy."

Running sores, indolent ulcers and similar troubles, even though of many year's standing, may be cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens and heals. It is a great pile cure. C. H. Hagenbuch.

A Nation of Nerves

NEW AND STARTLING TRUTHS ABOUT THE NERVES AND BLOOD.

Dr. Greene's NERVURA, the People's Strengthener and Health-Giver.

No nation can maintain leadership in the civilized world when her people become physically weak. America has a wealth of nervous energy, but the incessant struggle for money and reputation—in many cases the struggle for bare subsistence—has exceeded our mental and physical resources. We are threatened with nervous bankruptcy. The physical capital of the country must be put on a sound and substantial basis. Great emergencies bring forth great men, and the strength of a master-hand is already felt in saving the American people from impending ruin. Dr. Greene, the distinguished specialist in nerves and blood, has opened the treasure house of his knowledge for the benefit of people in impaired health, throwing wide the doors of his consultation rooms alike to high and low, rich and poor. To him every suffering man and woman may come or write and receive invaluable advice free of charge. In the larger cities several times a year Dr. Greene gives free lectures on health and how it may be maintained. In these and other ways this great specialist has endeared himself to thousands and thousands of our people, who have taken his advice and the remedies he has prescribed. What a noble work for a man of such attainments, to spread broadcast, without price, the results of his researches and discoveries! Health of body is the greatest aid in accomplishing the work suggested to the mind. How great a benefactor, then, is he to whom thousands owe their physical vigor, enabling them to do their part, large or small, in the duties of life which promote individual well-being, stimulating that healthy industry which insures contentment and plenteousness for the masses and prosperity for the nation.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

For the Blood and Nerves,

the sovereign remedy bearing the name of this great discoverer, has turned back the overflowing tide of nervous disorders, and multitudes bless the wise physician for restored vitality and renewed efficiency in their field of labor. There is scarcely a family into which Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has not brought some brightness. There is hardly a gathering of two or three where one or more cannot tell of permanent relief from nervous disorders or some kindred ill.

Use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and consult Dr. Greene freely, personally or by letter, at 35 West 14th St., New York City. His reply will be prompt and cordial and you can be cured.

DEATH OF G. M. PULLMAN

The Inventor of the Palace Parlor Car Expires Suddenly.

A VICTIM OF ANGINA PECTORIS.

Retired in His Usual Health, but in the Early Morning He Lapsed Into Unconsciousness Before a Physician Could Be Summoned.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—George M. Pullman died suddenly of heart disease at 5 o'clock yesterday morning in his magnificent brown stone home at the corner of Prairie avenue and Eighteenth street, where he has resided for many years.

Mr. Pullman retired Monday evening apparently in his ordinary health, and there was no indication of his demise, or indeed any premonition even of illness.

Mr. Pullman was at his office in the Pullman building up to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon attending to business. Nothing unusual was noticed in his appearance. Mrs. Pullman was not at home when her husband passed away, she being absent in New York. She was apprised of the death of her husband, and at once left for Chicago, arriving here today, accompanied by her two sons, George and Sanger.

While seemingly in good health, Mr. Pullman had been complaining during the last three or four days of the hot spell and feeling rather uncomfortable. At 4.30 yesterday morning he called his body servant and sent for a physician, but sank into unconsciousness before the physician arrived.

Mr. John S. Runnells, chief counsel of the Pullman company, said: "Mr. Pullman died of angina pectoris. The extreme heat of last week, together with perhaps more than his usual exertion in showing some friends about Pullman, had caused him a feeling of debility, about which he spoke to one or two friends, but which he did not regard as serious. He was so well that he intended to leave for New York tomorrow."

At the town of Pullman, where the shops that bear the name of the great magnate are situated, no word had been heard of his health until newspaper men began to inquire as to the feeling of the townspeople on the subject. The event had been so sudden and at such an hour that the company officials in the town had heard nothing regarding the death of their chief till after the toilers in the huge car works and kindred establishments had begun the daily routine all unconscious of the tragic occurrence at the brown stone palace a few miles further north on the lake shore. Immediately, however, preparations were made to close the big shops and for the proper observance of Mr. Pullman's obsequies.

The death of Mr. Pullman, besides leaving a vacancy in the Pullman car directorate, also causes a similar condition of affairs in the board of directors of the Chicago Telephone company. He was represented on the New York Biscuit and Diamond Match boards by his son-in-law, Frank Louden.

It is believed in stock exchange circles that Horace Porter will succeed Mr. Pullman as president of the Pullman Palace Car company.

Mr. Pullman's residence on Prairie avenue, where he died, is one of the most delightful in Chicago. It is surrounded by a garden of most beautiful flowers, in which graceful palms occupy an important place. At the southern end of the property stands the "Massacre Monument," on the site of the old tree which marked the destruction of so many citizens and soldiers after the evacuation of Fort Dearborn, in August, 1812. The tree was removed some years ago to the court of the Historical society, and the place where it had stood was marked by a bronze group illustrating the rescue of Mrs. Helm by Black Partridge, and some of the incidents of the tragic event.

Mr. Pullman's fortune is variously estimated at from $12,000,000 to $20,000,000.

George Mortimer Pullman was born in Chautauqua county, New York, March 3, 1831, educated in the common schools, and while at school was taught the art and mystery of cabinet making by his elder brother.

He worked at his trade and did chores in a country general store, and at the age of 23 went into business for himself as a contractor for moving buildings along the line of the Erie canal. In 1855 he settled at Chicago and engaged in the business of moving and raising houses. This work was novel then, and he was quite successful.

About this time the discomfort attendant on traveling at night attracted his attention. A few sleeping cars were in use at this time, but they were wretchedly crude, uncomfortable affairs. Mr. Pullman bought two old day coaches from the Chicago and Alton road and remodeled them on something like the general plan of the sleeping cars of the present day. They were put into service on the Chicago and Alton, and became popular at once. He saw the possibilities of the business, but he had great difficulty in inducing capitalists to join him. His propositions were laughed at. He persevered, however, and in 1863 built the first sleeping car resembling the Pullman cars of today. It cost $18,000, and was the "Pioneer." After that the Pullman Palace Car company prospered. It had shops at different cities. In 1880 the town of Pullman was founded by Mr. Pullman and his company.

A young woman about to be presented at court receives the fullest instructions as to her behavior. She is told how to dress; how to manage her train; how to courtesy correctly. Every incident is carefully rehearsed so that she may commit no blunder in the presence of royalty. If all this trouble is worth while for the satisfaction of one brief moment, how infinitely more important it is that a young girl about to enter into the sacred precincts of womanhood, should be properly instructed in all that concerns a lifetime of possible happiness, or possible misery.

Every mother ought to see to it that her daughters are healthy and strong in a womanly way. She ought to make them aware that any neglect or irregularity of the special functions of womanhood may result in lifelong weakness and disease.

Any mother or daughter may write concerning these delicate ailments, with the utmost confidence to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. The letter will be answered free of charge with suggestions for self treatment at home, by which these complaints may be overcome without need of mortifying examinations. Dr. Pierce has had over thirty years' experience in the treatment of women's diseases, and is an eminent specialist in this particular field of practice. His "Favorite Prescription" cures completely and permanently the most obstinate cases of feminine weakness and disease. It heals all inflamed conditions, strengthens and tones the nerve centers and the entire womanly organism.

For prospective mothers and nursing mothers, the "Favorite Prescription" is a perfect strength sustainer.
