CAPITOL ARCHITECT SELECTED.

Henry Ives Cobb, Who Designed the World's Fair Flaherles Building. Harrisburg, Oct. II.—Bengy Ives Cobb, of Chicago, has been selected as the srchitest of the new dapitol of Fonneylvania Mr. Cobb will so to work at once on the working drawings, which probably will be ready within a month or six weeks. Two weeks will be allowed contractors to bid, on the construction of the building, so that work probably will be started about Jan. 1. Mr. Cobb estimates that the legislative building can be completed within a year from the tions of begin-sing the work.

The successful architect designed the fisheries building at the Wurld's fair, and is at present supervising architect of the United States postoffee building at Chicago. His plan carries out the ideas of the commission regarding a group of buildings, with the exception that instead of scattering them over the grounds they are all under one roof. The departmental buildings will be at ofther side of the capital, connected with it by structures that will contain
