SUMPTUOUS TRAIN TO THE SOUTH.

The Florida Limited will again run on the Southern Railway.

The Florida Limited, which is the synonym of all that is elegant in modern rail-way trains, and which during its former service has been a prime favorite for tourists from the North seeking the mild climate of Florida, will be placed in service by the Southern Railway about the first week in January, 1898.

With its return to service this train, which will be solid Pullman vestibled between New York, Philadelphia and St. Augustine, will present features in the way of luxurious and comfortable appointments and profuse service, and which will be destined to add still further to its already well-established popularity.

The Southern Railway is having trains, each the Florida Limited service, a drawing room, a sleeping car, a compartment car and a sleeping and observation car, each car completely furnished with appointments and appliances for the comfort and convenience of the passenger.

While no schedule has as yet been announced, it can be stated that it will be the quickest ever arranged between Philadelphia and St. Augustine, and will be so planned that passengers can leave Philadelphia at some convenient hour during the day and arrive at St. Augustine before midnight of the following day.—Philadelphia Record.

Notice.—Applications for further information addressed to Jno. M. Beck, station agent, Southern Railway, 5 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, will receive prompt attention. 10-20-97.

The Liquor League.

A county seat newspaper interviewed Philip P. McGuire, of Trenton, state secretary of the Pennsylvania Liquor League, who says there are 128 local associations representing an aggregate membership of 90,000, all of which will take an active part in the legislative battles next year.

The league is willing to concede to those who know to be willing to concede to those who desire the same rights and privileges enjoyed by members of any other branch trade. The secretary is perfecting arrangements for the organization of Schuylkill county into two gigantic associations, the first will comprise all the Fourth Legislative district with headquarters at Pottsville, the second will consist of the First, Second and Third Legislative Districts, with headquarters at Shenandoah. By this the league hopes to be able to make itself felt in legislative contests next year.

Veterans Discover Old Relics. A strange story has come to light through the Pennsylvania railroad excursion city-tour, says the Jersey Shore Star.

On the first of the recent excursions, Money veterans boarded the train at place. They had not seen the field since days of the battle in 1862. On the day the one had hidden his musket and the other under a ledge of rocks in a field and they were going down to them. After a short search the relics were found, and under them, to the intense surprise of the veterans, was found the old and rusty musket, the bayonet, the sword and the barrel of the musket, the sword being almost entirely rotted away. The relics were secured, and are now in possession of the owners in Massy.

THE LABOR TROUBLES.

Resolutions Adopted by the Lithuanian Alliance of America.

The following resolutions, adopted at the twelfth convention of the Lithuanian Alliance of America at Philadelphia last week, are published by request:

WHEREAS, On Sept. 10th, 1897, Sheriff Martin, of Luzerne county, and his posse did unmercifully shoot and murder at Lattimer the strikers, foreign birth.

WHEREAS, This evidence so far shows that shooting was unnecessary and uncalled for.

WHEREAS, With a little more prudence, common sense and respect for a human life, the marching strikers could have been easily induced to stop marching.

WHEREAS, The same Sheriff and his posse in the past have sought to justify their unlawful and anarchistic conduct by calling those innocent people killed "foreigners" and trying to give to that word the meaning of "foreigners";

WHEREAS, Not a few American papers in their un-American and narrow bigotry, trying to exonerate the guilty parties, have used the same word "foreigners" as a synonym of riotous anarchy; and

WHEREAS, We the representatives of the Lithuanian Alliance of America, representing the Lithuanian and Russian people of the foreign birth, but who under their solemn oath did declare their loyalty to the sublime principles of the holy treaty as proclaimed by a declaration of Independence; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the delegates of the twelfth annual convention of the Lithuanian National Alliance of America, do solemnly denounce the action of Sheriff Martin as unjust, unchristian, barbarous and disgraceful for the civilized nineteenth century and the principles of liberty and equality.

Resolved, That we consider this shooting of unarmed and law abiding citizens, though of foreign descent, as an atrocious and heinous crime, and we hereby condemn the Sheriff Martin and his deputies as the accessories of the heinous and the disgraceful crime which we excuse their murdering by the sweet taste of the white man's flesh.

Resolved, That we most emphatically protest against those vicious excesses as imposing the American good federal constitution and that we call those justifiers of the murder on the highway, un-American, inhuman, and we firmly believe them to be more dangerous to the liberty of this, our new Fatherland, than the utterances of the most desperate, the most vicious red-headed anarchists.

Resolved, That we appeal to the American public to view the shooting of the poor, friendless foreigners (some of them citizens of this country) in the true light of justice, of charity and of a civilized society, and that we call on every fair minded citizen of this country of the noble free to do his utmost to defeat those efforts of the heathenized capitalists to oppress their fellow men.

Resolved, That we brand every defender of the shooting of the poor working men, even foreigners, as a traitor to his Declaration of Independence, and Christianity, and even Humanity; and we appeal to all the friends of the oppressed classes to begin immediately the steps of mutual understanding of the oppressed ones and of educating themselves in the list of wrongs for the cause of perfect liberty's equality against the evils of the nobility by birth or money, not by merit.

Resolved, That we appropriate $1,000 to the fund for the prosecution of Sheriff Martin and for the support of the orphans and widows made by his stupid representation of the lives of men.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the President, Governor of the state, Attorney General of Pennsylvania, District Attorney and Judges of Luzerne county.

Charged With Threatening Martin.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 25.—John Seppah, one of the strikers who was shot and wounded at Lattimer by Sheriff Martin's posse, was arrested at Plains Saturday night, charged with making threats against the life of Sheriff Martin. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Coniff, who committed him to jail for a hearing. The hearing was somewhat under the influence of liquor, denied the charges made against him. The principal witness against the accused was William Martin, the son of the sheriff. He swears that he heard Seppah make threats against his father's life.

Godey's Magazine for November is an extra Fiction Number, and contains fifty new and choice stories from over five hundred submitted manuscripts. The leading tale of this unique issue, is a bright, gorgeously told Thanksgiving Day story, "The Yielding of Hezekiah Craddock," by Sara S. Porter, superbly illustrated by Jessie Wilson.

The spirit of this story is entirely new. The Thanksgiving season. In addition to the fiction, there are several important articles of general interest. The illustrations are placed throughout the issue, and bear prominently upon the subjects of the reading matter. The literary contributions of this number are a critical review of the works of George du Maurier, and an article on the work of a new "Poet of the Civil War," whose verses are well worth reading. The rhymes for the month are described with notes from the latest novelties; and the editor contributes a terse history of the origin and development of "Our National Anthracite," based upon the best authorities. A striking cover adorns the magazine.

Men who for years have been suffering with distressing affection of the back or kidneys have been immediately relieved and permanently cured by the judicious use of Salvation Oil, the great pain-cure. Apply according to direction.

MAHANAY CITY.

Thirty breaker boys at the North Mahanoy colliery were discharged this morning upon going to work. They ran away from the breaker at noon on Saturday, after orders had been issued that the breaker work a full day, to attend the funeral of the young man who was killed in the rollers at that colliery.

Arrangements for the entertainment of the teachers during Institute week has progressed so far that those having the matter in charge say that there will be ample accommodations for all who desire to attend.

The funeral of the late John Dinny, who was shot on the 15th inst., by Joe Kaurie, will probably be held this evening.

John Hask, an aged resident of Mahanoy township, died at his home in Bowman's lane, aged 74 years. He was for many years employed as stable boy at Schuylkill colliery.

The Boston Row colliery was thrown idle today because of a car breaking loose and running down the slope. Two cars were smashed, the rope cut in several places and the damage done. No one was injured.

When bilious or colic, eat a Cascaets candy cathartic, cure guaranteed, 10c, 50c.
