I can only describe the pain as a continuous dull one, interspersed with sharp piercing ones in the small of my back. If I attempted to rise from a chair after con-tinued sitting I found it a difficult matter. I managed to get along in this way with my household duties, for I was determined not to give up, and I felt many times as though I positively must. I read of some of the cures performed by Doan's Kidney Pills, and comparing the symptoms described with mine I concluded the pills would help me, and I procured a box and began to take them regularly according to directions.
