Get Out the Vote.

The election of state and county officers will occur on Tuesday next, and the Republicans of Shenandoah and the Mahanoy Valley are especially urged to exert themselves in getting out the party vote.

Should the Democrats carry Schuylkill county on Tuesday, such a defeat would endanger the Republican party in the more important election of one year hence.

Chairman Shay and his lieutenants have about completed the work of the campaign, and they feel confident of success.

Beware of "complimentaries." Our friends the enemy, realizing the strength and popularity of our standard-bearers, have resorted to the tactics of trading in the interest of their candidate for Sheriff.

The Republican party presents a strong ticket, and it is the duty of those who believe in the principles represented by McKinley to vote and work for its success.

But if you have weak kidneys, bladder trouble or distressing kidney complaint, then Swamp-Root will prove to be just the remedy you need. Too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back is convincing evidence that your kidneys and bladder need doctoring.

COMMON LAW WIFE WINS.

Martha Cuybourne Declared the Legal Widow of Millionaire Gregory. Chicago, Oct. 28.—Probate Judge Kohlsaat yesterday rendered his decision in the Gregory will case in favor of the plaintiff, Martha Cuybourne.

The contest over the $1,000,000 estate of Allen Gregory, "father of the stock yards," proved a sensation. The plaintiff, Martha Cuybourne, sought to establish her rights as the widow of Allen Gregory, and did so through the evidence given by Mrs. Lillie Gregory, of Kansas City, a niece of the millionaire.

Mrs. Gregory testified that on March 3 last she performed a common law marriage ceremony, uniting her uncle and Miss Cuybourne, with whom he is said to have lived for 40 years. Upon the death of Gregory the estate was placed in administrators' hands for the distribution among the thirty odd heirs. Judge Kohlsaat's decision, in which he finds Martha Cuybourne the legal widow of Allen Gregory, will be fought through the upper courts by those heirs.

Lavigne Defeats Walcott. San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Betting on the Lavigne-Walcott fight, which took place here last night, was very brisk. Thousands of dollars were poured into the postrooms, the great bulk of which was placed on Lavigne. Two days ago Walcott was the favorite with small bettors at 10 to 8, but last night the pools sold at 10 to 6, with Lavigne the favorite. And the sports showed their wisdom. For Walcott's seconds were forced to throw up the sponge in the 12th round. The battle was hotly contested, and Lavigne showed his superiority from the first.

John Rowe, Sr., is the choice of the Republican voters of Schuylkill county for Director of the Poor, and the hundreds of Democrats who recognize in him a gentleman of exemplary habits and good business traits, will help to swell his majority on Tuesday.

John Anstock is sure of election, but nevertheless he will lead his Democratic opponent by a handsome majority. He is well and favorably known in Shenandoah and the Mahanoy Valley. The law provides for minority representation on the Board of Jury Commissioners.

The Republican party presents a strong ticket, and it is the duty of those who believe in the principles represented by McKinley to vote and work for its success.
