NEARING THE CLOSE.

The Contest Court Will Close About the Middle of December.

The contest court closed yesterslay at moon sofit-November 9th. After the examination of witnesses the Judge announced that the court was desirans of closing the hearing as soon as possible and inquired of Judge Dunn, the respondent, whether he could close by January or February at the least.

Judge Dunn said be was auxious to close, and had thus far wasted no time, but lifty-four-sessions having been held since his side of the case was opened. He said he would waste no time, and felt confident that he would be able to close the hearing of testiony for his side by middle of December, When court again convenes he will file an additional bill of particulars, but it will con-ta n few names and can soon be disposed of When Judge Durn closes his side the conoffer. Yesterday witnesses from Barry and Union townships were heard.
