And Because He Could Not that It He Determined to Kill the Official Who Directed the Work of Suppressing the Black Plagne. Poonah, Bombay Presidency, Nov. 4. —The trial of Damodar Chapekar, the Irrahmin lawyer, who was arrested on Oct. 4 hast, charged with being con-mented with the murder of Lieutenant Ayerst and Commissioner Rand on June 22 hast by shooting them from ambush as they were leaving the re-ception given by the governor at Ganoshkuid in honor of Queen Vic-toria's jublee, and who the day of his arrest confessed having murdered Com-missioner Rand, with the aid of an accomplics, and also admitted being the author of the tarring of the queen's statue at Bombay, was commenced in the court house here yesterday. The building was strongly guarded in order to prevent any demonstration upon the part of the prisoner's friends, Chape-kar adhored to his confession, but de-clined to make any further statement. Chapekar is no ordinary criminal, as the following particulars regarding his Chapekar is no ordinary eriminal, as the following particulars regarding his crime and career will show: crime and career will show: The prisoner is about 28 years of age has induced them

In the midst of the excitement which prevailed there on account of the al-leged harshness of the health measures adopted it is claimed that Chapekar remarked: "So many people are dying of the plague; is there none propared to die, putting an end to the author of all this tyranny?"

The police regard this as having been a direct incitement to kill Commissioner Rand, who was directing the work of preventing the spread of the disease. In any case Chapekar and another man began to procure arms, and succeeded in getting more swords, firearms and aword sticks.

In his confession Chapekar admits that from that time on be began to systematically follow Commissioner Rand with the object of killing him on jubilee day. He want to St. Mary's church on that day, may the commis-
