THE AUSTRIAN REICHSRATH

Reminds Mark Twain of an American Lighthouse.

Vienna, Nov. 8.—The all night sitting of the Reichsrath was the most disorderly ever witnessed in any parliament.

Some of the anti-Semitic remarks were of such an impudent character as to defy reproduction.

The most frequent insult hurled about was the charge of drunkenness.

Three courts of the members appeared to have gone raving mad.

"Your grandmother was hanged on a dung heap," and similar vicious expletives and suggestions were common remarks.

M. Vorstehman, the Russian painter, and Mr. Sponkel, L. Clotens (Mark Twain) were in the visitors' gallery.

Mark Twain said it reminded him of an American lighthouse meeting to punish a horse stealer.

He asked Herr Lesker to give notice of his next 12-hour speech, and said he would be there and all that.

Herr Lesker took the observation seriously and replied that he hoped next week to repeat the performance.

Fatally Shot by a Robber.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—John Nelding, a shoemaker, was shot and fatally wounded by a robber early in the morning while asleep in his home on Antrim street.

John Nelding was awakened just as the intruder appeared in the doorway of their room with a lighted match in his hand.

Realizing he was detected, the stranger fled in a revolver at the head.

The bullet pierced the breast of the sleeping man, penetrating a lung and blood vessel.

The robber escaped. Nelding will die.

General Lee Off For Cuba.

Washington, Nov. 4.—General Fitzhugh Lee, in pursuance of his instructions, left Washington yesterday afternoon on his way to Cuba.

This fact is believed to exhibit the confidence of the administration in the satisfactory outcome of the pending negotiations with Spain.

A Charge Will Be Imposed on Him.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Senator Platt, of Connecticut, in reply to a question, said concerning the outlook for currency legislation at the coming session of congress.

"I have been using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for some time. It cured my baby of a cough he had. I believe it was the means of saving his life. Mrs. Thomas Hintz, Centerville, N. Y."

Literary Note.

The Ladies' Home Journal has secured what promises to be the greatest magazine of 1897. It is entitled "The Ladies' Home Journal."

Experiences of a Cabinet Member's Wife. In a series of letters written by the wife of a Cabinet member to her sister at home, are detailed her actual experiences in Washington, frankly and freely given. The letters were written without any intention of publication. They give intimate peeps behind the curtains of high official and social life under the searchlight as it has never been before presented. The President and his high officials of the land, with the most brilliant men and women of the Capital, are seen in the most familiar way. As these are all actual experiences the name of the writer is withheld. The letters will doubtless excite much interest among readers and study of informal evidence to discover the secret. "The Experiences," which will be beautifully illustrated, begins in the December number and will continue for several months.

Bad for Bronchitis

but extremely good for the sufferer from that harassing disease is Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. No medicine can compare with this great remedy in the prompt and permanent aid it gives in all bronchial affections. It stops the cough, soothes the irritated throat, and induces refreshing sleep.

"I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One bottle cured me."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

now put up in half-size bottles at half price—50 cents.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Dr. Swallow had four majority in Pinegrove.

Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, announces that he will no longer oppose free silver, and will support the Democratic ticket when possible.

Shenandoah's vote in the next Republican convention will be reduced to 12, and Mahanoy City will have the same.

A canvass of the vote of Berks county shows that in the county districts many Democrats voted for Dr. Swallow, considerably reducing the Democratic plurality.

Shenandoah appears to be a Prohibition town. At least Swallow had 802 votes at the last election to 714 for Beaman and 415 for Brown.

Senators Quay and Penrose, accompanied by several political friends, will leave Washington to-morrow for Florida. Senator Quay will remain there until Congress convenes, but Senator Penrose will return within a week.

Governor Hastings, in an interview, says the Republicans must get together next year or they will be beaten.

The law says that when a vacancy occurs in the office of Director of the Poor by reason of death or otherwise, the County Commissioners shall appoint a person to serve until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Walworth has been elected and it is claimed can qualify at once by producing his certificate of election at the Recorder's office and by taking the oath of office there.

Obituary.

Rev. H. F. Witzel, who died at his home in Hazleton on Thursday evening, will be buried on Monday afternoon. The deceased was pastor of Grace Reformed church, at that place. He was a son-in-law of Rev. H. A. Keiser, of Mahanoy City.

Assaulted a Woman.

Mrs. Mary Arnata presented George Dalkat before Justice Shoemaker last night on a charge of assault and battery. The woman made more serious accusations, but did not press them and allowed the case to be settled on payment of costs.
