CAUGHT IN A RUSH.

A Miner Covered by Coal and Almost Smothered.

Mahany City, Nov. 11.—John Joseph, a miner employed at the Murray colliery and a narrow escape from being smothered to death by a rush of coal. He was employed at the bottom of the gun-blast slope and went up in a chute to start a lump of coal which had become wedged. There was a sudden rush of the coal and Joseph was precipitated into the car below, the coal covering him to a depth of about four feet. Only his left foot remained exposed. Fortunately a large quantity of coal fell on the top of the man's body and formed a cushion under the large lumps of coal that followed. This prevented the man from being smothered. Joseph would have been smothered to death but for the presence of the workmen and their prompt relief work. The victim will be confined to his home for several days.

BETRAYAL OF THORN.

Mrs. Naeck's Testimony Against Her Former Lover.
THORN WILL ALSO TESTIFY!
His Counsel Declares That the Accused Man's Testimony Will Show That Mrs. Naeck Herself Murdered and Disemboweled Goldensuppe.

New York, Nov. 11.—The expected happened at the trial in Long Island City yesterday of Martin Thorn for the murder of William Goldensuppe. Mrs. Augusta Naeck, the witness stand and gave a detailed account of the tragedy as already published, declaring that Thorn alone committed the murder and dismembered the body, and that she only aided in the disposition of the remains. She declared that she acted as she did wholly through fear of Thorn, whom she asserted that she never loved. She had, she declared, never loved any man but her husband, and this statement caused a titter in the court room.

CATHOLIC PRIEST MURDERED.

His Watch and Purse Missing—No Clue to His Murderers.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—The body of Rev. Henry J. McPike, an assistant priest of the Church of the Annunciation at North and Dickinson streets, was found yesterday morning lying in an arway in the rear of St. Paul's academy, on Christian street, above Ninth. The right side of the skull was fractured and the brain was dead for some time. The nose was broken and there were bruises on the forehead. The police are convinced that the priest was murdered, and the fact that his watch and purse which he had with him, are missing leads strength to this theory. There is not the slightest clue to the murderer.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Annual Gathering is Drawing to a Close.
MANY INTERESTING DISCUSSIONS!

The Selection of the Place for the Next Institute is Arousing Considerable Interest—Mahany City and Pottsville Are the Towns Making the Contest.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Mahany City, Nov. 11.—The arrival of Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction Henry Honck at the Teachers' Institute in session here yesterday afternoon was cordially welcomed by the teachers. Mr. Honck closed the session with an address in his usual happy manner.

At the opening of the session this morning Mr. George Howell, city superintendent of schools at Scranton, Pa., was introduced. He took "Words" as his theme and had the institute very much interested. Thought giving, or expression, he said, is equal to thought getting. The best test of impulsion is expression. Supt. Howell gave the origin of certain words and said the study of etymology casts a great deal of light upon history and the movement of the various peoples of Europe in the earlier ages. The lecture was a literary treat. Many favorable comments were evoked from the professors and teachers present.

English Literature in Our Public Schools.

The subject upon which Dr. M. E. Brumbaugh, of Philadelphia, talked very interestingly and he was followed by J. O. T. Corson, of Columbus, O., who spoke on the subject of "Reading." He paid a strong compliment to the remarks of Supt. Howell. There is a great difference in teachers, said the speaker. Two many teachers entertain, but don't arouse the curiosity or interest of their pupils. Boys and girls are being ruined by overwork in our schools. They get no chance to think. Discipline is a big feature of school life. It is not what the teacher is thought of at the present time, but what he will be thought of 20 years hence. If logging is necessary to make the man, go on with the man making.

The morning session concluded with another of Mr. Honck's entertaining talks and it had an uplifting effect. At the afternoon session Superintendent Howell and Dr. Schaeffer and Corson spoke again. Two of the auditors, a lady and gentleman, failed in the institute this morning and another auditor complained of illness. This was due to improper ventilation, but to no fault of the open house management. The facility for ventilation were ample and had not been used.

The all-absorbing topic between sessions and lectures is the contest for the next place for the institute. It has boiled down to a contest between Mahany City and Pottsville, with the chances very much in favor of the former. There will be some scattering votes, but they will not affect the result. The voting will start between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon and the result announced to-morrow. There is a strong sentiment in favor of Mahany City because of the general satisfaction with the town and the entertainment given by the teachers. Mr. Honck is not in favor of the town of Pottsville because of the spirit of opposition which has been evoked by the course of the Pottsville teachers in conducting their canvass. Some of the Pottsville teachers are talking of instituting a separate institute if the contest should go against them. The law allows any place having more than fifty teachers to hold an independent institute. It is not believed, however, that the threat would be carried into execution.

It would be well to make no mistake about getting next Sunday's press with this piece of music. After the issue which has been secured by the Sunday Press is exhausted, it will not be possible to secure "Do Your Honey Do" for less than 40 cents, which will be its regular price at the music stores.

They Beat the Record.

Several months ago 1002 wagons were hoisted in ten hours at the Richards colliery, near Mt. Carmel. Shortly after this record was broken and 1024 were hoisted in two hours. Yesterday an attempt to beat the last record was made. Only nine hours were worked but 1011 wagons were hoisted to the surface, best record yet made at this colliery. If the ten hours work has been worked and the same speed kept up, 1155 cars would have been hoisted.

WEST MAHANOY CASES.

Reasons Why the Indictment Should be Quashed.

As stated in last evening's HERALD, the trial of the members of the West Mahanoy township school board, charged with misdemeanor in office, has been fixed for next Monday. It is signed by one, "Ben Kaufman."
