Result of an Accident at Girardville Last Night.

WERE RUN DOWN BY AN ENGINE!

Henry Jones, Enoch Davis and Bernard Grady the victims—The One Was Slightly Injured—The Others Are Dead—Details of the Affair.

Special to Evening Herald.

GIRARDVILLE, Nov. 12.—A terrible accident occurred on the tracks near the Philadelphia and Reading Railway passenger station at night by three young men last night. One was killed, Henry Jones, aged 22 years, instantly killed. Enoch Davis, 23 years, sustained injuries that caused his death about two hours after the accident. Bernard Grady, 25 years, was slightly injured.

All the victims were unmarried and reside here. Jones was the son of Mrs. Gwynn Davis by a former marriage, and Davis, another of the victims, was his step-brother. The three young men attended the performance by the Pawnee Bill Company in the Palace theatre and after the show went to the depot to see the scenery, horses, etc. of the company loaded on the cars in waiting. While the young men were watching the proceedings a train running from Ashland to Girardville approached, and they attempted to board it, but were struck by an engine running in the opposite direction and which they had not observed when it approached. Grady was knocked into a gutter at the side of the track. Davis was crushed by the wheels, but escaped instant death. Jones was caught by the engine and dragged about 150 yards. He was horribly mangled and some parts of his body were literally ground to pieces. His death was instantaneous. Davis suffered great agony until about one o'clock this morning, when death relieved him. Grady only suffers from bruises and will soon be about again.

Ladies' Symphony Orchestra. A decided musical surprise was tendered the audience at Kaler's opera house, Mahanoy City, last evening. The program was that tendered by the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, of Boston, and they received the enthusiastic reception they deserved. The theatre was crowded, and the management was compelled to turn people away from the doors. It was the best of the most artistic performances ever given in that popular play house, and aroused an expectation that was fully realized in a most artistic success by these young ladies. Manager Quirk has been prevailed upon to repeat the performance this evening, and it is expected that a large delegation from Shenandoah will take advantage of the opportunity to hear these artists.

Conspiracy Charged. The Grand Jury at Potomac yesterday found a true bill against Frank and Andrew Green and Felix Rykiewicz on a charge of conspiracy to defraud creditors. The Greens kept a clothing establishment on East Centre street in this town and failed. After the Sheriff had levied on the stock some of the creditors made charges of fraud and caused a search warrant to be issued. A quantity of cloth alleged to be the property of the Greens was found in Rykiewicz's home. This led to a consultation which resulted in the Greens making a settlement with the creditors who had made the charge of fraud and caused the search to be made. Subsequently another creditor, Leopold Salter, appeared and demanded payment of his bill. It was refused and he then instituted suit on a charge of conspiracy.

Today the delegates and officers of the National Grange are the guests of the State Grangers on a trip to the Gettysburg battlefield. For this reason there was no session.

THE POES OF SOCIETY.

Governor Pingree Says They Prosper Under the Check of Respectability.

New York, Nov. 12.—Governor Hazen S. Pingree, of Michigan, delivered an address last night before the Nineteenth Century club, at Sherry's. His subject was "The Results of Two Years of Municipal Progress." Previous to Governor Pingree's address Herbert Welsh, of Philadelphia, spoke of reform in his native city and the abuses of ring rule there.

Governor Pingree said in part: "Business men are to blame for misgovernment of cities. They expect men to look down upon to furnish good government and to protect their lives and property, without doing anything toward it themselves. They grumble at the results of caucuses which they do not attend, and they complain of the mismanagement of those whom they take no part in selecting. It is the duty of every man to take part in the primaries, and I think it would be wise to prohibit every man from voting who took no part in the nominations.

"It is your so-called respectable people who are the most dangerous. Their cloak of contempt respectability hides them, and people will not believe you when you show them up, especially when they are church members and wear long faces. My experience is that those who stand foremost in the synagogues and wear long faces on Sunday, and spend the rest of the week in bribing aldermen and getting up stock jobs and schemes to defraud widows and orphans, are the most dangerous members of society."
