A Respite From the State Supreme Court at the Eleventh Hour.

Declares That the Hand of God Is in the Dolay, and Again Asserts His Innecence of the Crime For Which He Is Condemned to Death.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—William Henry Theodore Durrant was not integral at San Quentin today, the su-prome court of this state having granted another respits at the eleventh granted another respite at the eleventh hour. Durrant's attorney appealed for the writ to prevent the execution upon the grounds that no official knowledge of the action of the supreme court of the United States had yet been received, and that the superior court had acted too hastily in sentencing Durrant to be hanged today, as the law required that he be given at least 67 days grace.

Inherited blood diseases are flucing more difficult to cure than those which are acquired. One of the most common hereditary diseases is Scrofula, which the medical profession admit is most town to take his word for it was like "going to bit in a deep scated, and their of forts to cure it meet with little success. A child afficted with Scrofula is always puny and sickly, and can never grow into healthy manhood until the disease is eliminated. Scrofula leads into consumption nine times out of ten, so that it is important for this reason that immediate attention be given to all childers who inherit the slightest taint.

Mrx. S. S. Mabry, 560 Rim St., Macon, Ga., writes:

"My boy, Charlie, inherited a acrofulous blood taint, and from infancy was covered with terrible sores, his saferings being such that it was impossible to dress him for three years.
