THE GRAND JURY.

A True Bill Returned Against Chief Burgess Tabler. Among the true bills returned by the Grand Jury at Potomac yesterday was one against Chief Burgess A. Tabler, of Iowa. The charges are fraudulent conveyance of property and false pretense. They are made by one of Tabler's creditors and accuse out of the side of the defendant's meat markets in Hintonville, Maryland City and this town in Mrs. Justina Scydnowski whereby several creditors were left in the cold, and which has already been quite fully ventilated in the HERALD by publication of the civil proceedings instituted by creditors.

FUNERAL ACCIDENT.

Ladies Thrown From a Carriage - Horse Became Unmanageable. ASHLAND, Nov. 12 - While attending the funeral of Miss Annie Hoop in this town yesterday afternoon an accident occurred by which Mrs. Nathaniel Garrett, of Mahanoy City, received a fracture of three ribs on the left side, Mrs. Edward Golden, of Hills, sustained a broken wrist, Miss Jennie Roeder, of this place, had an ankle broken, and Miss Cresney, of Lainsburg, was more or less injured. The party was returning from the cemetery and the horses belonged to Thomas Chisholm. As the carriage was moving on to the main street one of the horses got a leg over the carriage pole and in the plunging that followed the carriage was thrown over an embankment. All the occupants were thrown out and Mrs. Garrett fell beneath the occupants.

Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. Ann Roeder, relict of the late Isaac Roeder, formerly of Schuylkill Haven, died at her home in Potomac yesterday, aged 72 years. Rev. Sabato Moris, D. D., a noted Jewish Rabbi, of Philadelphia, who dedicated the synagogue of the Kehaloth Israel congregation of town, died at his home yesterday at the advanced age of 75 years from an attack of paralysis of the brain. The remains of Rnoch Davis and Henry Jones, the two young men who were killed at Olmville Thursday night on the railroad, will be interred at that place on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

An Orphan's Home.

The committee of the National Council of the Junior Order United American Mechanics of the United States to count the vote of the new sixth object, to establish and erect a home for the orphaned and destitute members of the order and maintain the same, canvassed the vote which resulted as follows: Thirty-nine states polled a majority in favor of 6 states a majority against; 922 councils for and 449 councils against. The vote was close, being 2,904 of a majority in favor of adoption of the sixth object.

Ankle Sprained.

Constantine "Jack" Dada is unable to leave his home on account of a sprained ankle. He suffered a similar injury to the same member several months ago while making an ascent and was laid up about three months. Since that time the ankle has been very weak and susceptible to the slightest wrench.

Church Notice.

Rev. Alfred Heebner preaches in the M. E. church tomorrow. Subject for morning sermon, 10:30, "The Glory of Christ." Evening sermon at 6:30, subject, "Ruth - the history of a true conversion."

Pickpocket Caught.

MAHANAY CITY, Nov. 12 - While riding from Gilberton to this town in a Schuylkill Traction car last evening William Harris, a commercial salesman from Beranton, noticed a man change his position to a seat beside an elderly lady. Soon after Harris noticed the man take a purse from the lady's pocket and again change his seat. Harris took a seat beside the man and told him what he had seen. The pickpocket at first put up a bluff, but finally yielded and returned the purse to the owner. The whole affair passed off so quietly that some passengers in the car did not know the real transaction. There was no arrest.

Begin Right With Coughs and Colds.

Take the sure cure, Pan-Tina, 25c. At Grobler Bros., drug store. Minor Hurt. At Shenandoah City colliery yesterday afternoon, John Soumak met with an accident by having his right hand cut across the top. A small artery was also severed. The wound healed profusely.

CURTAILING COAL PRODUCTION.

Every Colliery in the Schuylkill Region Closed Down. Philadelphia, Nov. 12 - Today's Record says: In their efforts to bolster up the hard coal trade the anthracite presidents have failed a half on the rate of production and every colliery in the Schuylkill region shut down yesterday. The length of time they will remain closed could not be definitely stated at the meeting of the collieries, but it was said that some of them would probably start up again next week on reduced time. The Lehigh Valley railroad, in order to meet the reduction, has ordered its collieries on three-quarter time, and the other companies have also taken steps to curtail the production.
