An exchange says a non-partisan is n wall flower in politics. In Shenandon't there are several of the latter who are partisans when the victory is won. They are handy with the pencil and paper.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY of Kentucky has issued his proclamation announce ing the day set for the usual Thanksgiving ceremonies, and it should be adopted as a model by the Governors, present and future, of all other states. It merely announces the day and the fact that it will be observed, and then very properly quits.

A WASHINGTON correspondent edyne says there are only two orators in the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress and only four who are even fairly good speakers. Brosius and Dalzell are the "orators," and Col. William A. Stone, Charles W. Stone, Henry Bingham and Mr. Adams the Wairly good speakers." The correspondent is evidently not well posted upon the oratorical abilities of the Pennsyl vania delegation. The Congressman from this district, Hon. Charles N. Brumm, is not lacking in flery cloquence and is as forcible, impressive and effective in debate as any of those mentioned above. As a campaigner there are few in the state, in the Swift's ranks of either party, who care to cross swords with him on the rostrum

Demands Investigation of His Alleged Connection With Dreyfus! Case. Paris. Nov. 17.—Count Esterhary, who, it is said, answers the descrip-tion "of a rich and titled officer, well known in Paris society," who had been requested to resign his commission in the army in consequence of the continued leaking of military secrets since Captain Dreyfus was deported, has written a letter to General Billot, the minister of war. minister of war, with regard to the al-leged "infamous accusation." He demands an investigation, and says that he is ready to reply to all the charges that may be brought against him. Count Esterbazy, in an interview, de-clares he is the victim of a plot. He adds that a month ago he received an anonymous letter warning him that a former high official of the war office was formulating charges against him The count immediately informed the minister of war of the circumstance urging him to inventigate the matter A week ago a lady handed him docu-
