Many Political Candidates.

Next year will be a big one politically, and already applicants for fat offices are popping up on all sides. Some of the Republican candidates so far heard from are: Congressman Henson for either Governor, Judge or Congress; Judge Koch, of course, will be a candidate for the nomination for Judge, but he will have competitors in Arthur L. Shay, D. C. Hoening and George M. Roads, and Mr. Brown. If he falls of the Governorship, Hon. C. A. Louch, of Schuylkill Haven, and Hon. C. G. Matton, of Pottsville, are candidates for Congress conditionally. For District Attorney the following will be the candidates: C. E. Breckons, of St. Clair; S. R. Edwards, of Pottsville, and A. L. Shay, also of Pottsville. If he is not nominated for Judge, The names of Democratic candidates now being talked of are: For Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, George J. Wadlinger, S. H. Kaestner and H. W. Cummings, of Pottsville, and W. A. Marx, of Ashland; for Congress, Hon. James B. Kelly, W. F. Shepherd and James W. Ryan, of Pottsville; and J. O. Ulrich, of Tammany; for District Attorney, R. S. Eskrove, of Tremont, and M. J. McLaughlin and J. M. Moore, of Pottsville. The candidates for other offices are more numerous and hail from all sections of the county.

A Croup Cure

is what many a mother is looking for; something absolutely safe and reliable, that will disarm her terror of that dread rattling, strangling cough, so fearful to the mother, so fatal to the child. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a croup cure that can be relied on. Thousands say so.

Max. W. J. Jackson ("Stanford Revolt") writes from Truro, N. S.:

"That terror of mothers, the starting, croupy cough, never alarmed me so long as I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house."

"We have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in our family for years. Once when our boy had a severe attack of croup, we thought that he would die. But we broke up the attack by using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

is put up in half-size bottles at half price—50 cents.

"I'd Like to Be a Boy Again."

I'd like to be a boy again without a woe or care, with freckles scattered over my face and bayonets in my hair. I'd like to risk at 4 o'clock and do a hundred chores and see the wood and feed the hogs and lock the stable doors, and herd the hens and watch the bees and take the milk to drink, and teach the turkeys how to swim so they will not sink, and milk a hundred cows and bring in wood to burn and stand out in the sun all day and churn and churn and churn, and wear my brother's coat of clothes and walk four miles to school, and get a licking every day for breaking some old rule, and then get home again at night and do the chores once more, and milk the cows and feed the hogs and carry the milk to the store, and be a female regulator has no equal. Price 25c. For a boy again, a boy has so much fun. We can help you. Advice and book, free.

"Bob" Franklin, an English pugilist residing at Morris, has been matched for a limited bout with Prof. George Prince, a colored fighter, residing on East Centre street. The date will be fixed within a period of three weeks, the winner to receive a small purse and a side bet. John X. Davis, the trainer, is taking care of Franklin.

Joseph Cook, a barber, residing on West Centre street, had a narrow escape from being run down by a Lakeside car near the North Mahanoy colliery yesterday afternoon. By the prompt action of Motorman Waters the car was brought to a standstill within a few feet of the prostrate horse.

W. W. Lewis has gone to Philadelphia, to complete arrangements for a bout between his protégé, James Fowler, of Altoona, a colored pugilist, and "Crocky" Boyle, of Germantown. The articles of agreement will be drawn up in the office of the Philadelphia firm.

EMMA CALVE.

Great change for the worse in health is in most cases of long duration, a loss of weight and a pinched, drawn-out face. On the other hand, a gain in weight, up to a certain point, goes hand in hand with an improvement in all other essentials of health, and notably an improvement in the color and amount of the blood.

Not only is there a decided gain in the vigorous building up of the health that this great remedy never fails to bring about. Increased appetite, ready capacity to get food and the final cure of stomach disorders, bowel difficulties and nervous derangement follow the use of Paine's celery compound.

As a prudent man insures his house against a contingency of fire, however remote, so he should insure his health against the danger of weakness, by the use of Paine's celery compound.
