DIRECTORS ON TRIAL! DETAILED REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS. The Prosecutor is Thomas H. Dee, of Lost Creek, who Charges the Members of the School Board With Mismanagement in Office—Many Witnesses.

Special to EVENING HERALD. Potsville, Nov. 19.—The case of the Commonwealth against Patrick J. Ferguson, Patrick M. Noon, Thomas E. Flannigan, Martin E. McLain and John Duolin, members of the West Mahanoy Township School Board, for mismanagement in office, on call of Thomas H. Dee, was called for trial before Judge Bechtel at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Noon's defense. Did you hire it? Yes, sir. What did you pay for it? $100 for the term. When was it called? P. M. Noon. He is one of the School Directors? Yes, sir. Did you endorse your order? Yes, sir. Can you write? No, sir. Then how did you endorse the order? My name was there. Who wrote it? I don't know. Who put your name there? I can't tell. All I know is I never bothered only I touched the pen. It was at the School Board meeting.

Mr. Noon's defense. I hired the team and he worked with me the year before. I paid him $100 for the season in 1896. I made no contract with Noon for the team until after I got the contract. I received all my orders from the School Board with coal and wood. I got 100 lbs of coal and 100 lbs of wood. I made no reductions for the smaller sizes of coal. I can't tell what the coal cost me; I can't remember. Don't you know there was another man, Mr. Thompson, who put in a bid lower than yours in 1897? No, sir. Mr. Whalen then read the following extracts from the Township order book showing orders drawn in favor of Michael Carey, Sr. for fuel furnished: Order No. 122, Oct. 3, 1896, $300; No. 124, Dec. 5, 1896, $50; No. 125, Jan. 11, 1897, $50; No. 126, Feb. 1, 1897, $100; No. 127, June 3, 1897, $100.

Mr. Noon's defense. I was called for trial before Judge Bechtel at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. I was called for trial before Judge Bechtel at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. I was called for trial before Judge Bechtel at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

THE WEATHER. The forecast for Saturday. Partly cloudy, warmer weather and fresh to light westerly and south-easterly winds, with lead rain in the northern districts and possibly in the south.

Waters Found Guilty. The Girardville riot case of September 25th, that was untried for correspondence of the city newspaper, on trial before Judge Koch, came to an end yesterday. The defendants are Peter Mosca, Joseph Rakowski, Anthony Abramowitz, Peter Chlanowski, Michael Vogel, Thomas Samuels, Joseph Wadley, Joseph Zompa, Walter Sclanowski and Joseph Donahue. Wm. Katschewicz, the proprietor of the saloon wrecked during the riot, was the prosecutor, and alleged malicious mischief, assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery, and assault and battery to kill. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty against all the parties charged and they were sentenced this morning to pay a fine of $1.00, costs and six months imprisonment.

Richert's Cafe. Our free lunch tonight will consist of oyster soup. Sour kroust, pork and mashed potatoes to-morrow morning. They Pleased Gully. John A. Bolly, Jr., and P. J. Burke, publishers of the Daily News, were yesterday arraigned before Judge Butler in the United States District Court, in Philadelphia, and pleaded guilty to the charge of sending obscene literature through the mails, in the shape of stenographic reports of the Bogart trial in their paper. Judge Butler gave the defendants a reprimand and imposed a fine of $50 and costs on each of the defendants. The costs will amount to between $500 and $700.

At Kephinski's, Arcading Cafe. Cream of tomato, free during and between the acts of the performance to-night. Hot lunch to-morrow morning. Sporting Event. The much talked of event in sporting circles at present is the shooting match on the Lavalley fair ground on Thanksgiving Day. It is between Tom Cooper of Mahanoy City, and James Coleman, of Higgins. The purse is for $50, each contestant to shoot at 50 birds. Both sportsmen were entered in a similar contest several months ago which resulted in a tie.
