SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Its Progress is Slow But Its Foothold Increases at Every Meeting. That the soldiers' monument will be erected in town is now almost beyond dispute.

In the absence of the regular Secretary, M. H. Master was appointed to take his place. The site committee, of which Hon. M. C. Watson is chairman, reported that a meeting was held at the home of the latter last Friday evening but was not able to make a final report.

Mr. Powell, of the same committee, suggested the idea of having a charter granted to the association, which would enable them to transact business in a legal manner. This matter was then placed in the hands of the site committee.

The secretary was also instructed to notify the President and Treasurer to be present at the next meeting as business of much importance will be transacted. The meeting adjourned until Friday evening, December 10th.

LAWYER HOWE WAS FOOLED.

Thorn's Prosecution Rests Without Calling Mrs. Mack.

BUT SHE MAY TESTIFY LATER!

The Prisoner's Counsel Declares He is "More Than Positive" That the Jury Will Acquit His Client When All the Evidence is Presented.

New York, Nov. 27.—Lawyer Howe and Howe, who have thus far defended Martin Thorn, met yesterday with a serious and unlooked-for obstacle when, after a brief adjournment, District Attorney Youngs informed the court that the people rested their case.

It was generally expected that Mrs. Mack would be put on the stand to re-herald her confession, and the lawyers had been assigned to look after the interests of the defendant.

Mr. Howe, "but I am more than positive that when we introduce our evidence the jury will acquit my client of the crime with which he is charged."

Later in the afternoon District Attorney Youngs said he was not prepared to say whether Mrs. Mack, who had made such a famous scene in the first trial by her confession, would be produced or not.

The evidence adduced yesterday by the prosecution showed a possible inclination on the defendant's part to get rid of his enemy, Goldenshue.

Each was the admirer of Mrs. Mack, and it was proved that they had a report Goldenshue had evidently very much the better of the argument when it came to battle.

Thorn was less surprised than his lawyers when this statement was made by Mr. Youngs. Thorn took in the situation at a glance, and bent forward in earnest conversation with his lawyer.

Mr. Howe, for the second time during the trial of his client, appealed to the court for time.

Justice Madigan, after a conference with both lawyers, decided to postpone further consideration of the case until Monday.

This is not a special one week price. We sell them all the year at these figures:

GENERAL MARMADUKE'S CLAIM. North Defeated South "Without a Single Decisive Victory."

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—General Vincent Marmaduke, of Sweet Springs, Mo., who was recently appointed to the position of chief of the Missouri National Guard.

He was addressed to the ex-confederate veterans of Missouri, and said in part:

"The honor and glory of this great struggle was with the south, and southern soldiers ought, in justice to themselves and the dead comrades, to preserve the memory of it. While the north and northern soldiers are insisting against our maintenance of sectional feeling, they are erecting monuments to their successful leaders and telling the story very much to their credit and to our detriment."

He then spoke of the north and south, and said that the north and south were united in the struggle.
