The United States Supreme Court De-

Charces its Franchise Invatid. Washington, Nov. 10.—Justice Har-ian handed down the opinion of the United States suprems court yesterday in the case of J. J. Douglass va. the commonwealth of Kentucy, holding the franchise of the Frankfort lettery to be invalid. The case was brought to this court by Douglass on allegations of error in the decision of the Kentucy court of appeals, which Bingham-was adverse to him. In rendering his 102, N. Y., spinion Justice Hartan quoted the provision of the Kentucy constitution of 1891, revoking all lottery charters heretofore granted, and forbidding the ex-istence of lotteres in the state. He considered at some length the conten-tion of Douglass that the revocation of his charter worked the revocation of a contract, in violation of the constitution of the United States, prohibiting any state from passing a law impairing con-
