SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1807.

In is enough to make the gods weep to read the eulogy of "Mariy" from that individual's own pen. Our evening contemporary should frame that manuscript, and preserve it for future generations.

THE average height of women to England is 5 feet 6 inches, which is two Inches more than the average. height of the American women. American women, however, are head and shoulders above their English constna in almost everything else.

Just as the veterans of the war begin to thin out noticeably by death. the usual complaints about the redundacy of the pension roll are circulating in certain kinds of newspupers, but there are few to be found in patriotle Pennsylvania.

YESTERDAY we made mention of a lones. decision by the Supreme Court up holding the claim of one A. H. Post. a letter carrier of Salt Lake City, for overtime under the eight-hour law of The Home of Mood's Carsaparilla-1888. As a result of that decision Assistant Postmaster General Heath has issued an order making it an esmeunde offense punishable by dismissal from operated u the service for a bitter currier to work and an ap more than eight hours a day. For lack of anything more serious. there is quite a tempest in a tempot among the blue grass believ of Ken UU tucky over the christening of the warship Kentucky, which is to occur at the launching of the versel some time next month. Secretary Herbert appears to have promised the honor navy to a Miss Richardson, who had provided a hottle of Kantucky's probut as Mr. Herbert went out of office before the event could come off he before the event could come off he dust, old bourbon, for the occasion. province of his successor. Secretary Long, following the enstom, asked Governor Bradley to name a lady to perform the service and he selected his daughter. This has aroused the ire of Miss Richardson and blue grass society is all worked up over the affair. If the weather continues as cool as it has been the past few days, it is more than probable Miss Rich ardson will cool off soon. Meanwhile, as she is reputed to be both beautiful and accomplished, she can that she may, in the course of time. figure at a more important christen-

Prominent Everywhere.

Every community is more or less bothered by the individual with a "pull," and Shenandoah is by no means an exception to the rule. In fact there are several of these prominent individuals, in the different walks of life, who lungine that the future success of the business, political and social circles of Shenandouh are dependent upon them. Speaking upon this subject a contempor ary truthfully says:

"One of the most valuable things a man can have in worldly sense, is a PAYT ON'S BIG turn up his nose and make faces at the good citizen who hasn't.

"A man with a pull can keep his saloon spen all night, get along without paying taxes; draw pay from the Acknowle Cdged to be the best, with town for doing nothing, snap his fingers at any ordinance, and go serenely on his way, letting the unfortunate who haven't a pull do the kicking. It won't do them any good, and he knows it.

"A man with a pull has been known to stand off a whole street in known to stand off a whole street in the matter of building a sidewalk. After everybody else has been com pelled under threat of legal penal ties, to take up his old wooden side walk and lay a stone walk in its place the rickety, miserable dilapidated old walk in front of the premises of the man with a pull remains as it

"If any of his neighbors are impudent enough to ask him why he doesn't comply with the order of the Prices: town council as they have done, he simply looks at them from head to foot and informs them he 'deesn't
