symboles of the statement that a Georgia convict has confessed to the murder of Clayton at Plummerville in the autumn of itse. Shoriff Clery says that he has information from a for-Bradley county, that a Georgia con-vict made such a confession to another convict, and that the self confessed murderer of John M. Clayton is now serving a life sentence for another mur-der in Georgia. His name is withhold, but it is stated that he is a former cliinen of Arkansas who fied from the state immediately after murdering Clayton, According to the confession Clayton. According to the confusion politics played no part in the terrible affair, revenue for an old grudge being the motive given by the Georgia convict. The state authorities say they will leave no stone unturned to bring the murderer to justice in this state, but are in a quandary as to how it can be done should the murderer be found service a file sentence for murder in serving a life sentence for murder in
