Lewis Parrick Had a Remarkable Escaps From Instant Death.

Quakake, Dec. 13.—Lowis Parrish, 25 years of age, a resident of Wyoming county, and a guest of Charles D. Avery, of this place, was run down on the F. & E. ralivad crossing at Tamanend Saturday evening by an empty coal engine.
A loaded coal train had just passed south when Parrish started to cross, not noticing the approach of a north-bound engine. It was a very narrow escape from instant death. Parrish was caught by the pilot and pushed ahead over the projecting ties and rough cinders. The engineer heard screams of dis-HATS TRIMMED
