FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1909

The government will have to go to the rescue of the starving miners in the Klondike region.

Foreign money orders are reported twice as heavy as last year, which means a large increase in immigration shortly.

The fight for delegates to the next Republican state convention from this county is already assuming shape. They will be elected by the delegates to the last county convention.

The Alms house plate is bothering a good many free-born American citizens just now. It is to be hoped Directors Middleton and Aikenfield will make good selections if changes are deemed necessary.

A ship left New York yesterday for the Yukon region with 335 passengers. They will have a long voyage around Cape Horn, but the good food will lead them to suffer much greater hardships than such a trip involves.

Highway robbery is not, fortunately, a common occurrence in Schuylkill county. In fact, the county seat is the first place in the daylight robbery has been reported for a long time.

It's hinted in political circles in Washington that Senators Quay and Penrose have quarreled. While there may be little truth in the rumor, it is predicted that the two Senators will not view things political through the same glasses six months hence.

EUROPEAN newspapers give far more attention to United States affairs than they did a few years ago, and in some cases discuss them with considerable intelligence. Ignorance of American politics is no longer a qualification for service on the leading London, Paris or Berlin papers.

WITH Swallow's gubernatorial boom falling flat at the recent Prohibition dinner given at Pittsburg and Chairman Gorman of the Democratic state committee, declaring against everything but a straight Democratic ticket, there is little doubt of large Republican majorities next year.

THE New York Journal of Commerce says the world is discovering the utilities of corn, and that this country is not fully aware of the value of the maize plant. Even sugar, it is insisted, can be made from it profitably and no part need be wasted.

THAT there is an honesty rising superior to business avarice even in this sordid age appears from the experience of a Topeka sporting man. He wrote to a cigarette company that he had saved the pictures in 1,200 packages of cigarettes which he had smoked, and asked what price the company would offer for them. He received an answer saying that the company would give him a coffin if he would smoke as many more.

SENATOR PENROSE, in a campaign speech delivered recently in Philadelphia, charged openly and squarely that the money raised by assessing municipal employees for campaign purposes, amounting to between $100,000 and $200,000 a year, together with the large amount secured from corporations that obtain congressional favors, has been pocketed year after year by the managers of the Republican city ring, headed by Dave Martin, but little of it being expended for the benefit of the Republican organization.

THE refusal of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers of Great Britain to accept the terms of settlement proposed by the employers' association means that the great strike will go on to the bitter end. The employers decline to recede from their position respecting freedom in the management of their business without the interference of the Union, and emphatically refuse to grant the reduction demanded in the hours of labor; the engineers refuse to consider any basis of settlement which does not make concessions in these matters, and the result is that the deadlock is on again, and will probably continue until one side or the other is forced to surrender. The battle has waged many months now, and as both organizations are well organized and equipped for the struggle, it will probably last many more months. The indications are that the contestants will fight themselves to a standstill, and in the
