The greatest claims for S.S.S. (Swift's Specific) are made by those whom it has cured, and after all the most valuable reputation is one which is given by those who speak from experience. We could publish a page of what we claim S.S.S. will do, but the people prefer to read of what it has done, and hence we give the testimony of reputable, well-known people in different parts of the country, who gladly tell of how S.S.S. has cured them of blood diseases, after trying other treatment in vain.

No wonder S.S.S. has such staunch friends. The experience of those who take it to-day will be the same as of those who twenty years ago found it the only cure. Blood diseases are obstinate, and cannot be cured by one medicine in a dozen which claim to cure them; so when S.S.S. is taken with satisfactory results, after a disappointing experience with other remedies, it is not strange that it has grateful friends by the score.

Mr. William Sowers, of Bradford, Ohio, was cured by S.S.S. ten years ago of a severe blood poison, and writes that to this day no sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned. He says: "I had a terrible blood disease which is considered incurable, and was treated for a long time by the best physicians, but they did me no good. The disease seemed to get a firmer hold on me, and attacked my tongue and throat, which were soon full of white ulcers. "I changed doctors several times, and afterwards took nearly every blood remedy on the market, without the slightest benefit. After five years of treatment which did me no good whatever, I was induced to try S.S.S. This remedy proved itself equal to the cure, for in a few months I was entirely cured, and my skin was perfectly clear and smooth. I could hardly believe that the cure was permanent, but ten years have elapsed and no sign of the disease has yet appeared."

S.S.S. is a sure cure for Cancer, Catarrh, Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Eczema, and all other blood diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It is Purely Vegetable and is the only blood remedy which is guaranteed to contain no mercury, potash or other harmful mineral. S.S.S. is sold by all druggists.

A STAGE DOOR MURDER.

Popular London Actor Stabbed by an Ex-"Super." UNEXPLAINED ASSASSINATION.

William Terriss Was Walking From His Cab to the Stage Door When the Murderer Pounced Upon Him and Stabbed Him Three Times.

London, Dec. 17.—William Terriss, the well known actor, was assassinated last night as he was entering the stage door of the Adelphi theater, being stabbed with a knife. Terriss was playing in London in the English version of William Gillette's American drama, "Secret Service." The murderer, an ex-"super," was seen stepping across the pavement from his cab and stabbed him three times. As the actor fell his murderer was seized by the people who were outside the theater. The wounded man was carried into the theater and doctors were called from the Charing Cross hospital, but Terriss expired in 15 minutes. The murderer, whose name is Archer, was a "super" at the theater several years ago. No motive for the crime is known.

When Archer arrived at the police station he still had the weapon, apparently a big butcher's knife, concealed beneath his cape. On being charged with murder he is reported to have replied: "He's done me out of the benevolent fund this morning, and I am out of it for life."

The murderer was placed in a cell, and under a special watch.

The murderer gave the name Richard Arthur Prince, but he was known at the theater as Archer. His wife is employed there as an actress. Since he left the Adelphi Archer has several times begged aid from the different theatrical funds, of whose committees Mr. Terriss was a member.

It appears that the assassin on Wednesday evening asked the keeper of the ordinary stage entrance as to the whereabouts of Mr. Terriss, and his behavior was then so obnoxious that Harry Nicholas, one of the principal colleagues of Mr. Terriss, was obliged to remonstrate and to order him to leave the premises.

The scenes along the Strand at the hour when the theater closed last night were remarkable. By that time the special editions of the evening papers were out, and the newsmen were shouting around the theater exits that Mr. Terriss had been murdered. At first the people refused to place any credence in the report, believing such an event impossible, but when they found it was true horror and indignation were painted on every face.

Members of the Adelphi company say the assassin was known at the theater as "Mad Archer." They say that Archer nursed a grievance against Mr. Terriss ever before he left his employment at the theater. More than once he stood in the wings and indulged in sarcastic comments on Mr. Terriss' acting, such as "fools often succeed in life where men of genius fail."

A large audience had already assembled for the evening performance, and the manager came to the footlights and announced that as Mr. Terriss had met with an accident no performance would be given.

It was during Henry Irving's first American tour that Terriss appeared on the stage in the United States. After leaving the Lyceum company he played Romeo to the Juliet of Mrs. Mary Anderson at the Lyceum theater for 200 nights. He then entered upon the career of a star, and save for occasional provincial and foreign tours, had since reigned supreme at the Adelphi theater, the leading melodramatic house in London. He was the idol of the Adelphi pit, and long endeavored himself to the great mass of London playgoers by his sterling qualities as an actor and man.

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Raddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation and was finally cured by DeWitt's Little Early Bile Beans, the famous pills for all stomach and liver troubles. C. H. Hagenbach.

The Populist Program.

Washington, Dec. 17.—At a caucus of the Populist members of the house of representatives last night it was resolved to resist all efforts to modify the existing civil service laws so as to enable any party that may be in power to fill the different positions in civil service with partisans, and to resist all efforts to destroy our greenbacks and treasury notes, and to oppose any scheme of enlarging the powers of national banks. They also decided to favor a Cuban recognition resolution and an equitable voluntary bankruptcy law.

Miss Alice Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Hivesalve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous skin remedy. C. H. Hagenbach.

Gales on Ireland's Coast.

Queenstown, Dec. 17.—The violent weather which has prevailed for several days along the Irish coast continues without abatement. The British bark "Rita," from Cardiff for Talouhuano, put in here yesterday, having been seriously damaged by seas breaking over. Many small craft have come up to this harbor for shelter.

Impassino lured Mrs. Fuda to the railroad track, where her husband butchered her with a hatchet, placing the body where it would appear that she had been killed by a train.

Another Victim of a Mob "Court."
Brook Haven, Miss., Dec. 17.—Another negro was lynched at Hankston Ferry, in Simpson county, Wednesday as an accomplice of Charles Lewis in the murder of the wife and four children of Brown Smith on Wednesday of last week. Dr. Rogers found that death was caused by strangulation. The incident is held tomorrow. There are no clues yet, other than that the crime was committed by robbers.

It is a plain fact that twenty per cent. of the deaths in our larger cities are caused by consumption; and when we reflect that this terrible disease can be forestalled by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence, or pity them for their ignorance.

COLOUR LINE IN LABOR.

A Lively Debate in the American Federation of Labor.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON REBUTED

Labor Leaders Assail the Brilliant Colored Professor and Reaffirm the Declaration That All Labor, Regardless of Color, is Welcomed.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 17.—The negro question figured the greater part of yesterday afternoon's session of the American Federation of Labor. A heated discussion was brought on by a resolution of Henry Lloyd reaffirming the declaration of the federation that all labor, without regard to color, is welcome to the ranks—denouncing as untrue, in fact, the reported statements of Booker T. Washington that the trade unions were placing obstacles in the way of the material advancement of the negro, and appealing to the records of the federation conventions as complete answers to such false assertions.

Delegates Jones, of Augusta, Ga., spoke, claiming that the white laborer could not compete with the negro laborer, though organization would improve conditions materially.

Frank Cooper took part in the discussion, explaining that the movement was not against the negro laborer, but against the cheap laborer, and that the textile workers of the south were being placed in a position that would tend to deprive most of their means to teach laborers in the south the benefits of organization. He also made the point that the capitalist would profit by the failure of the negro laborers to organize, thus making the negro an impediment to labor movements.

Henry Lloyd said he did not ask white laborers to take negro laborers into their homes, but true trade unionism did not ask a question as to color, that the intention of the resolution was not to bring up the question of color lines, but it was against the words of Booker T. Washington that the resolution was aimed.

C. P. Fraley, a Nashville delegate, insisted that the negro was not the equal of the white man socially or industrially. He grew warm in speaking of "President Cooper's" remarks regarding the negro in the labor movement, and stated that the president had not revoked the commission of a national organizer who had patronized a non-union white barber shop in preference to a union negro barber shop. The organizer had simply been allowed to resign, and no publicity had been given the matter. In answer to a question desiring the name of the party Fraley stated it was James Johnson, president of the pressman.

James O'Connell and P. J. McGuire spoke for the resolution. The latter insisted that Booker T. Washington was guilty of putting the negro before the public as the victim of gross injustice and himself as the Moses of the race. M. D. Hatchford insisted that drawing the color line would be a blow to non-union white barber shops.

W. D. Mahon charged that Jones was not a representative of southern trade unionism, having just joined the ranks, Jones then, in his own defense, declared he did not oppose the negro, but did intend that the negro laborer was lower than the white, citing an Atlanta case where whites and blacks had been jointly employed and the whites struck. He wanted to know if there had been any effort made in the east to organize Chinese who came in conflict with the union labor.

President Gomery then ruled that the discussion must cease.

The resolution which had caused the heated debate was adopted, and the delegates went into executive session.
