The secret of success is constancy of purpose.—Disraeli.

The January term of criminal court will prove interesting in more ways than one.

The bull fight in Havana was not a refined spectacle, but the bulls were not tortured for six days and nights as were the poor human wretches in the long bicycle race in New York.

The wheels of fortune are still in operation in some parts of the town. The Chief Burgess cannot plead ignorance of their existence, and he should exercise his authority at once.

The respondent in the Lyon-Dunn judicial contest is supposed to close his side within two weeks from tomorrow. It is to be hoped that the beginning of the end of this contest fare is near.

CANADA has placed a tax of $2 a gallon on whiskey going into the Klondike country "in order to stop the traffic." The figure looks more like a revenue raiser than a moral barrier.

If President McKinley lets the civil service bars down there will be a great revival of Republicanism throughout the country, and especially in Schuylkill county.

Should Congressman Grosvenor ever have presidential aspirations, he would be sure to receive the unqualified support of the vast army of patriots who have failed to pass a civil service examination.

SIXTY-EIGHT sailors lost their lives while navigating the great lakes this season, and as the Western papers prefix "only" to the number, it is to be assumed that the record is a satisfactory one, all things considered.

EDITOR JOYCE walked out of the court room last week without being sentenced, and was told to go home and remain there until sent for. Those on the inside say the prosecutor's three licensed places in Mahanoy City weighed in the balance.

DURANT, the murderer of two young girls in a San Francisco church, has been sentenced twice and has escaped punishment for more than two years. The delays and evasions that have occurred in his case are anything but creditable to American courts.

SCHUYLKILL county has, as a rule, competent and obliging officials on "the hill," in whom the people have perfect reliance. One of them, however, neglects his duties to such an extent that he has been dubbed "the lobbyist," because he is found more often in the corridor of the court house than in his office.

STATE TREASURER HAYWOOD says the contractor for the new Capitol would be forced to finish the legislative building in time for the next session of the legislature by a provision in the contract requiring a heavy daily forfeit for delay in the work. He thinks the contract will be awarded about the middle of January.

It is not a violent presumption that the chief executive of this town should see to it that the borough ordinances are enforced without fear or favor. The people demand it, and it is hardly asking too much. Not the least among the flagrant violations is the operation of the wheels of fortune.

ADVERTISERS are making themselves seen and heard in every issue of the HERALD. This is for the benefit of Christmas shoppers. It is the right thing to do. It saves buyers' lots of anxiety and work. It is easy work to sit down and read where the choicest selections are to be seen, and then go and buy what you need.

HERE is an interesting bit of political news taken from the columns of the Pinegrove Herald: "Heister Albright, the recently defeated candidate for Sheriff, is not saying much but sawing wood. Next fall the Quayites show their hand in the nomination of any of the county officers or members of the Legislature, they will wage war against rings and local bosses and defeat the ticket." We do not know that our contemporary has authority to speak for the friends of the defeated candidate for Sheriff, but if the above be true the latter will have a big job on his hands.

WARNING TO RAILROADERS.

Our Central General says they should not go to China. Washington, Dec. 20.—The first report of the state Department from United States Consul Goodwin, at Shanghai, China, is a warning to American railroad men not to go to China for employment. He says: "The American railroads have been invited to go to China for employment. I must advise you that the present market for their labor in China, and should more roads be built there will be a market only if the roads are built by Americans."

The central general says he has had many inquiries from American railroad men as to the chance for employment in China. He describes the small Chinese railroad system as showing the hopelessness of looking in that direction for work. There are only two railroads in operation, with a total mileage of 2335 miles. They employ only 25,000 men, of whom 10,000 are Chinese and 15,000 are American. The Chinese are practically all Chinese, and a foreigner cannot compete with them. The highest salaries received by the telegraph operators, at $10 per month, but they get $20 to $30 per month. All of this is in addition to the 40 cents gold on the dollar. The roads are paying 15 percent dividends.

Another road is under construction from Shanghai to Yoo Kung, 11 miles, and Chinese are doing all of the work, and on Dec. 15 the first train was run on the projected road from Shanghai to Pootung. The construction of this road depends upon the success of the Belgian syndicate in securing its loan.

In addition, the employees are given a pay cut of ten days during the holidays. This is equal to a reduction of 50 per cent in wages. MARVELOUS ESCAPES FROM DEATH. Wild Rush of a Runaway Car on the Rio Grande Road. Castle Rock, Colo., Dec. 20.—Last night a wreck occurred at a point two miles north of Castle Rock, on the Rio Grande road, in which 23 men were injured, one or two fatally. The wreck was the result of a collision between a southbound passenger train and a runaway chair car, which started from Castle Rock, having broken the connection with the rest of the train. The chair car was not a part of the passenger train, but contained about 50 of the men who had been employed in this vicinity lately buying rails on the Rio Grande. In its two mile dash it acquired great headway, and when it collided with the engine of the southbound freight the engine forced itself half way through the car, smashing the frame of the car and the seats. Only a few are seriously injured. Physicians are attending the injured men, who have been taken to Salida, by a team and engineer of the colliding engine escaped by jumping.

It is plain fact that twenty per cent of the deaths in our large cities are caused by consumption, and when we reflect that this terrible disease is largely preventable by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, we can only wonder at their negligence, or pity them for their ignorance.

London, Dec. 20.—The Sunday Special published a report of an interview with the fiancée of William Arthur Prince, who murdered William Terrier, the actor, as he was entering the Adelphi theater last Thursday evening.
