Special trains were run from Oxford, and the audiences were trowded, particularly last night.

The entertainment was given in the long library of the palace. The heavily moulded white ceiling, electrically it, the long rows of draped bookcases and the aliver piped organ made a fine setting for the wall dressed crowd. The stage, draped with red curtains, was erected at the western end, the prosentum surmounted by the Mariborough arms in a wreath of Christmas greenery, which also depended from the ceiling.

The performance opened with an organ overture by Professor Perkins, of Birmingham, who composed the music for the musical burlesque, with which it closed. The participants in the performance were the Duke and Duchess of Mariborough, Lady Lillian and Lady Nora Spencer-Churchill Lady Randolph Churchill, Lady Blandford, Lady Curzon and Lady Sarsh
