Frank Smith and drawing a knife to stab. This bright and roaring farce comedy has made a tremendous hit in all the large cities and will be produced with the same strong company of artists, will certainly be a great treat to our people who enjoy the pleasures of a pretty opera house and a good play, and we trust that they will take advantage of this fact and give this very strong attraction that is endorsed by the elergy and press, a rousing reception as it certainly deserves.

WANG Wang, the comic opera made famous by DeWolf Hopper, comes to Kaier's to-morrow evening. It had a run of 250 nights at the Broadway, in New York, which proved its merits as a favorite. It is more magnificent than ever this season. The scenery is elessyrup and find it very beneficial, and car are irresistable, the pretty girls in gorgeous costumes fill the stage, and "Wang" is ludescribbly funny. The management of the theatre has looked upon "Wang" as the event of the season, and judging from the crowd that will be present the public has the same
