SUDDEN DEATH.

Miss Connor Dies After un Hiness of But a Few Hours.

Miss Nellie E. Connor died at the bome of BITTER CONTESTS ARE PREDICTED her parents, Thomas and Johanna Connor, at No. 312 East Centre street, this morning, after a brief illness. The deceased was 30 years of age and was employed as a sewer by Thomas Mullahy, the tailor. She was taken ill at about six o'clock last evening and died this morning, at 5:30 o'clock. The death was a severe shock to the family and friends.

Miss Connor gave no indication of illness during the day. She worked about the house and appeared to be in good spirit. Shortly before six o'clock she escorted her grandmother, Ars. Scanlan, to the latter's home, a short distance from the Connor home. When

At about this time word was received that Miss Connor's brother, Thomas, who is employed as a driver by Armour & Co., had been run over. The announcement, it is believed, gave Miss Connora nervous shock.

A Health reporter had an interview with Mr. Hollopeter this morning and the lawyer spoke quite freely in relation to remonstrate. The young man was brought home and it was found that his injuries were compara-While driving down from Turkey Run hill he stopped to fix a brake block. The horses started while he was engaged at the work and a wheel passed over one of his feet, brusing it considerably, but causing no fracture.

Miss Connor evidently thought that her brother had been more seriously injured and the shock coupled with the chill and head-ache of which she complained caused a collapse. At eight o'clock Dr. D. J. Langton was called and after remaining about two hours, he left saying that he anticipated no serious results. At two o'clock this morning the patient's condition became alarming and the doctor was again called. He remained presumed that death was due to nervous prostration and heart trouble. The patient was unconscious from the time of the collapse

Over a Hundred Applications From Saloonkeepers of Town Are Attacked-No Withdrawals Will be Allowed by the Court. An enormous batch of remonstrances to applications for saloon licenses was filed in the Clerk of the Courts office at Pottsville yesterday. They aggregated 185 and cover many towns in the county. Of these 104 are Miss Connor returned she complained of a filed against Shehandoah applications, of chill and headache. Charles A. Snyder, the Pottsville lawyer, filed 23 of them.

spoke quite freely in relation to remoustrances. People who think the filing of the remonstrances are mere bluffs, said he, are badly mistaken. The fact is, the contests in the license court this year will be the most determined ever made in this county. An important note in connection with the re-monstrances this year is an order by the court that none shall be withdrawn out of ourt. A lawyer who files a remonstrance must let it stand until the court passes on it. "Is it not a fact that most of the remondrances you have filed are based upon technicalities, such as an improper filing, or reporter asked Mr. Hollopeter.

"No. There is where you are mistaken. with the patient until she died. Nothing which showed that evidence had been acon allegations of violations of the law. The charges are selling on Sunday, selling to omissions in the applications, or some techni-minors, selling beer by the can and pitcher to children, etc. The evidence in hand gives the character of the violations, with the dates, the names of the people who procured the drink, and the names of witnesses. "I understand," said the reporter, "that ost of the remonstrances have been prompted by a spirit of retaliation for politi-cal reasons?"

"Again you are wrong," said Mr. Hollo There is not a case I have in hand in which politics enter. All my remon-strances are well founded and unless the parties employing me change their minds as good in court, there will be a loss of at least sixty licenses in this town alone."

The Herald reporter has learned, how-ever, that many of the remonstrances filed by other attorneys arise from political sore-ness. He was informed by excellent authority that ex-Senator J. J. Coyle has caused several remoustrances to be filed in retaliation to the remonstrances that were filed against Hon. Joseph Wyatt and tenants of two of Coyle's properties in Mahanoy City. The informant states that James A. Rinck the lawyer who was formerly located at Tamaqua and for the past two years has been located in Philadelphia, is acting upon the instance of ex-Senator Coyle. Mr. Rinck is opposing applications from Shenandoah, Mahanoy City and Lost Creek.
