End of the Deadlock in the Lower

House of the Legislature. DEMOCRATS AID THE "BOLTERS."

Louis Schaeffer, of Baltimore City, Chosen For Presiding Officer-A Conflict Between the City and the Country Members.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 8.—The Republican members of the lower house of the Maryland legislature, after more than two months of "deals" and "promises," failed to agree upon a speaker for the house of delegates, and yes-terday 12 of their number, assisted by 41 Democrats, elected Mr. Louis Schaef-fer, of Baltimore city, to the position of presiding officer.

It has been a warm struggle through out. The Baltimore city delegation contended that their 18 votes had given the Republicans the majority, and in-sisted that they were entitled to the speakership; the county members thought that their 31 yotes were entitled to some consideration, and de termined that the man to wield the gaved should come from outside the precincts of the metropolis of the state. Seven city members bolted the conference of the city delegation held in Baltimore some weeks ago, and since then chaos has reigned in the Republican ranks.

The Democratic members of the house, realizing that there was not a possibility of electing their candidate for the speakership, Mr. Lloyd Wilkinson, of Worcester county, lintened to the overtures of the "bolters," and yesterday 'delivered the goods' as agreed upon at a conference held late on Thursday. The thorough organization f the minority was thus illustrated All phases and factions of Democracy is represented in the minority, yet when the time came there was not a waver in their ranks—each member did as he was directed and cast his secret ballot for a "dyed-in-the-wool" Republican. Preliminary to the balloting Mr. Ashley M. Gould, of Montgomery county, the majority nominee, drew, and presented the name of Oscar L. Quinlan, who was on Wednesday elected speaker pro tem. There was one deserter from the ranks of the "regulars," and Mr. Schaeffer received one more vote than was expected, the result being: Schaeffer, 53; Quinlan, 37, There being one absentee—a Democrat—every vote was thus accounted

The correspondent says: 'This happy conclusion of Baron Von Bulow's negotiations is the cause of universal satisfaction here The cabinet will meet today, pre-aumably to decide about the Chines-loan. The Standard, in an editorial apparently inspired, says: "For the present it must suffice to say that China has made earnest overtures for Great Britain's good offices, and that Lord Salisbury is giving the closest at-tention to the matter in its practical aspects. The probabilities point to a settlement which, without involving undue risk to the British exchequer, will secure for England advantages the value of which cannot be appraised in mere monetary terms."

The editorial proceeds to state that the loan will be partly devoted to pay-ing the Japanese indemnity, and "will thus make the emperor of China again master in his own house, while enabling the mikado so to increase his army and fleet as to render Japan a power which the strongest westerstate cannot afford to affront."

The editorial declares: "It is the common policy of England and Japan to bring the comercial development of China into harmony with its territorial integrity, and in pursuance of this policy the cordial co-operation of the United States may be presumed."
