without seeking pecuniary recompense, but looking to the wider interests of the future."

Then came the weightiest portion of the speech. Mr. Chamberiain reviewed at length the West India question, and the report of the royal commission thereon, and emphasized the "great in-jury of the bounty system, which, while ruining the West Indies, brings a gain estimated at £2,000,000 yearly to Great Britain." The government, he said, be-lleved the country "generous and just enough to remedy this crying injus-tice." He was glad that Belgium had anticipated Great Britain in calling a conference on the subject, and hoped this might succeed better than forme conferences. There were many objections, he con three word many objections, he out three to countervalling duties, which would "involve us in commercial treaty difficulties with foreign nations," but the main objection was that while the trade they wished to save amounted to 260,000 tons. Great Britain's own sugar imports amounted to 1,500,000 tons. It seemed unscientific to benefit the for110 North Main Street.

Mr. De Armond, a Missouri Demo-THE FATING BRINKING crat, precipitated the issue by offering the resolution as an amendment, but a point of order against it was sustained. Mr. De Armond appealed. He urged the Republicans who had pro-Belicio fessed friendship for the strugling Cubans to override the decision of the chair as the only chance of securing action on the proposition. Mr. Balley, the leader of the minority, and other Democrats joined in the appeal. The The Dennsylvania excitement became intense, but the appeals of Mr. Dingley and other Repubican leaders succeeded. Mr. Colson, a Kentucky Republican, warned his side that unless he was soon given an opportunity to vote his sentiments on the Cuban question he would co-operate in any revolutionary method to secure ac tion. The Republican tactics kept to the front the pelat that the minority were seeking to override the rules of the house, and they got every Repub-lican vote, sustaining the chair by a vote of 152 to 114. One Democrat, Mr. Fleming, of Georgia, voted with them on the ground that he could not violats his oath by voting against upholding Before the diplomatic bill the rules. came up the army bill was passed.

"Therefore," he said, "the govern-ment has decided to exhaust every alternative before having recourse such a drastic measure, and feeling that the recommendations of the com-missioners, though good, would not work quickly enough the chancellor of the exchequer has consented to propose be so large as the incidental gain Great Britain derives from the bounty sys tem, but it will be large enough to enable the industry and the population to tide over a crisis until continental nations recognize the impolicy of the bounty system."

Mr. Chamberlain expressed his conviction that the immediate relief measures to be proposed in addition, which he said he could not as yet explain in detail, would "stimulate the sugar in-industry and enable all well managed estates to hold their own, while tending to the ultimate prosperity of the colony."

Newspapers in all sections of the country are commenting on Mr. Cham-berlain's West India scheme. The London Times says: "We are not greatly enamored of the system of dolen to which by some fatality the prese government has resorted with unusual frequency." The London Standard warns Mr. Chamberiain that his proposal "savors of protection." and that he must be prepared to deal with criti-cism. The Daily News asks whether Mr. Chamberlain has forgotten the ve hement language in which he condemn ed the late government for voting a sinall grant to New Foundland.
