Beware Of the Knife.

Mr. Lincoln Nelson, of Marshfield, Mo., writes: "For six years I have been a sufferer from a scrofulous affection of the glands of my neck, and all efforts of physicians in Washington, D. C., Springfield, Ill., and St. Louis failed to reduce the enlargement. After six months' constant treatment here, my physician arread we to submit to a remonths' constant treatment need, my physician urged me to submit to a re moval of the gland. At this critical moment a friend recommended S.S.S., and laying aside a deep-rooted prejudice against all patent medicines, I began its use. This experience is like that of all who suffer with deep-seated blood troubles. The doctors can do no good, and even their resorts to the knife prove either fruitless or fatal. S.S.S. is the only real blood remedy; it gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently.

Anarchists Excluded From the Prohibited Anti-Dreyfus Meeting.

TWO KILLED IN ALGIERS RIOTS.

The Jewish Quarter Attacked and Stores Pillaged-Many Persons In-Jured in the Fights Between the Mob and the Hebrews.

Paris, Jan. 24.-In anticipation of the prohibited anti-Dreyfus demonstration yesterday, under the direction of the organizing committee of the anti-Dreyfus meeting at the Tivoli Vauxhall last Monday night, stringent measures were taken by the authorities to preserve order. The Place de la Concorde and the Garden of the Tuilleries was held by detachments of cavalry and infantry and large forces of police. Nothing happened until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the time announced for the meeting to protest against the pro-Dreyfus agitation, in the Salle des Milles Colonnes, in the Montparnasse quarter.

The approaches to the hall were oc-cupied by police and mounted Republican guards, while the precaution was taken of removing all chairs from the interior. The police refused admission to known anarchists, but many who were less prominent evaded the police vigilance, gained admission and created disturbance.

M. Thiebaud was elected to the chair, and the nosiest disturbers of the proceedings were expelled from the hall.

M. Thiebaud proposed that a wreath should be laid on the Strasbourg statue and the proposal was greeted with cries of "Vive l'armee" and "Vive La France,"

As the disturbance continued M. Thiebaud got a motion adopted to close the meeting.

The wreath was then placed in a carringe, but the police refused to allow the crowd to follow in a body, and divided it into small groups. In the meantime the anarchists tried in vain to organize a fresh meeting.

The wreath was placed upon the statue at 4:30 in the afternoon amid perfect order. Later in the evening the police dispersed large bodies of anti-Jewish demonstrators in the Rue de la Fayette and at the offices of The Aurore. But nothing serious occurred, and there were few arrests during the day.

All Paris is excited over the row in the chamber of deputies on Saturday when M. Gerault Richard dealt M. De Bernis a violent blow in the eye. The trouble arose over another attempt to have the alleged Dreyfus confession public. Premier Meline declared that this could not be done, and almost immediately there was a scene of wildest disorder, adherents of the various parties attacking their opponents in true pugilistic style. The disorder became so great that President Brisson adjourned the sitting, but the fighting was not stopped until a detachment of soldiers was sent to the scene. Today M. De Berris is wearing a patch over his highly colored optic, and there is M. De Berris is wearing a patch over his highly colored optic, and there is much talk of proposed duels.

It is agreed on all sides that Saturday's scene in the chamber of deputies was almost without precedent, except the recent disturbances in the Austrian reichrath. Curiously enough, Count Badeni, former Austrian premier, wit-nessed it. He must have felt quite at

After the chamber was cleared 125 torn off neckties were picked up, together with many coats that had beer torn by deputies from each other' shoulders. M. Clovis Hugues, one of the deputies for the department of the Seine, had a door slammed on his fin-gers, which were so mutilated that he is now in the hands of a surgeon.

The scene of the fighting around the tribune was unparalleled. Comte de Bernis is a retired cavalry officer, and has the rough manners of the bull fighting town of Nimes, where he will be a candidate at the next elections. M Jaures is thick set, florid and hairy. M Gerault Richard is mild looking. The latter was hustled and knocked abou like a football in his attempt to dea Comte de Bernis a blow. Some 80 depu ties were in the fight. Coats were torn to tatters and cravats were seized in the attempts to choke an opponen During a lull in the fight M. Gerau Richard was seen in tatters, his crava torn off and his vest front torn open while his sympathizers were petting him on the back.

Suddenly Comte de Bernis bounde up the stuirs of the tribune on all four-like an animal, dealt M. Jaures a heavy blow on the back of the head, and kick ed him on the legs. M. Jaures was knocked over, and stumbled down the steps. Picking himself up, he saw Comte de Bernis making off with a crowd of deputies, while the remainder of the house hooted him, crying "Cow-ard" and "Tra'tor." M. Jaures threw a knotted handkerchief after him. Comte de Bernis seemed paralyzed, and the house cheered M. Jaures, while body of socialists made another rush at Comte de Bernis, and the melee was renewed as furious as before.

M. Brisson, president of the chamber finding it hopeless to restore order, de parted, and the military entered at the request, it is said, of a questor, who feared loss of life if the scenes were

The mob invaded the Jewish quarter and pillag-ed the shops in the Rue Babazoume. driving the Jewish merchants into the streets. A squadron of Chasseurs was ordered to the scene, and charged the mob with drawn swords, but the mob re-formed further on, cheering for the army.

Revolvers and daggers were freely used. One man who was stabbed in the back and shot in the head died on the spot, and many were seriously stabbed, one, named Cayol, dying from his injuries at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The growd, hearing of this, became dangerously excited, shouted "They are mur-dering us," "Death to the Jews," and resumed pillaging. The fronts of six shops were destroyed, and the loot was burned. The police repeatedly charged the rioters, but were stubbornly resisted, and were powerless to restore order until the troops arrived.

Several policemen were severely mal treated. Many arrests for theft have been made. The Jewish authorities recommend their co-religionists to re-main indoors. Both the men killed in the riot were Christians, and their companions have sworn to avenge them. It is feared there will be further riots.
Serious rioting and pillaging too place at Mustapha, a suburb of the city, Saturday night. Ten Jewish shops were looted and a number of policemen injured. Troops were summoned, but order was not restored until 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Forty arrests were

The center of the interesting scene The center of the interesting scenes in the textile troubles temporarily shifts ed from New Hedford to Boston yesterday to the meeting of the executive council of the National Spinners union. This meeting was called to consider the strike situation in New Bedford, and also the matter of the Fall River mills and other wide. and other mills in New England where strikes or lockouts are imminent or have already taken place. The meeting was one of discussion rather than of action, although it was resolved to concentrate all the efforts of the organiza-tion on the New Bedford situation leaving the Fall River trouble and the difficulties in other cities for loca unions to handle and adjust if possible

The principal feature of the discussion was the denunciation of the Ark-wright club, and the charge that that wright club, and the charge that that organization of mill freasurers and agents conspired with Agent Chase, of the King Philip mill, of Fall River, to substitute ring for mule spinners. There seemed to be some difference of opinion as to whether Agent Chase was a willing party to what was called the con-spiracy or had been forced into it by the Arkwright club. It was, however, generally accepted as a fact by the meeting that the attempt to put in the ring frames was merely an entering wedge to put them in every mill in Fall River.

Fall River.

The spinners say that the machines do inferior work, and that their introduction in other mills in New Bedford has not been profitable to the mill owners. In mills where the ring frames have been placed no dividends have been paid. An instance was cited of one mill that had been shut down for ten years simply because there was no ten years simply because there was no demand for its product after machinery took the place of men.

The New Bedford strike situation was fully discussed, and the general opinion seemed to be that the settlement of the trouble would be a long time in coming In fact, Secretary Ross said that he did not look for its solution until far into the summer, if, indeed, it came then.

The most remarkable thing about Mrs. Nellie J. Lord, of Strafford Corner, N. H., is that she is alive to-day.

No one, perhaps, is more surprised at this than Mrs. Lord herself. She looks back at the day when she stood on the verge of death and shudders. She looks ahead at a life of happiness with her children, her husband and her home with a joy that only a mother can realize.

Mrs. Lord is the mother of three children, two of whom are twins; until the twins came nothing marred the joy of her life.

Then she was attacked with heart failure and for a year was unable to attend to the ordinary duties of the home. In describing her own experience Mrs. Lord says:
