ing morning papers. The Journal has since intimated that their report was incorrect, and many of the readers of that paper are trying to fathom the motive for the publication. It is generally acknowledged that the Journal leads its Pottsville contemporaries in many respects. It was also known that Maj. Finney, the masterhand in the direction of our morning contemporary, was in Washington at the time, accompanied by Hon. Elias Davis, but no one for a moment would believe that either of the two would send out such a report. Even the "promises" from the Silver men and the endorsement of the Congress man from this district would not have been sufficient to cause them to desert the gold standard which the Journal so ably and intelligently advocated during the past campaign. We most emphatically denounce such insinuations as base falsehoods, manufactured from the whole cloth by the enemies of "good government" with ulterior motives in view.

The Journal has not "dopped" to the free sliver camp. The Journ P. The Alvord House Destroyed and Six motive will be vindicated by future events.
