Denounces the Action of the Nev York Bank President. Omaha, Neb., Feb. 2.—Francis C. Grable, promotor, arrived in Omaha from St. Louis yesterday. my former position.
"The whole trouble was precipitated by the action of President Williams, of the Chemical National bank, of New York, in demanding the resignation of Cashler Quinlan. The various com-panies with which I was called were in good condition, although it is true carrying a large indebtedness, and they were in no way dissimilar to thousands of other projects which are at the present day backed by large eastern capital. I had a consultation with President Williams a few days previous to the regignation of Cashier Quinlan, and told him that I had already $180,000 on hand with which to pay the indebtedness of our companies to the bank, and that within a few using them I do not have the aching in my back nor any trouble arising from my kidneys excepting at times a slight tenderness over the left kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are a rest of the amount. He was aware of the fact that I had paid off a note of $190,000 which had been due the bank upon a former occasion, and he had no right to doubt my ability or honesty to do so in the present instance If President Williams had withheld action in the matter for a fortnight his bank would have received every dollar that was due from the Edgemont companies."
