A Reduction in Price, but not in quality....

This week we have reduced the price of our popular 30c. Blended Coffee to 25c. This coffee is a blend of the highest grades of the best coffees, combining strength and richness of flavor, and is really but little more expensive than the common, low-priced goods in the market, requiring less coffee on account of its greater strength.

Our Java Coffee is a strictly Old Government Java. Nothing but Java.

If you want Cheap Coffee we can give you a fair roasted coffee at 10 cents per pound, equal to any low-price package coffee in the market.

Giving Good Performances.

No better repertory company has made its appearance at the Kaiser grand opera house, Mahanoy City, than the Markham Stock Company, which opened a five-night engagement at that popular play-house Tuesday evening. Too much praise cannot be given for the performance last night. Harry Markham, the leading man of the company, is a highly meritorious actor, says the American. He has a splendid appearance, a rich melodic voice and an ease and grace rarely seen on the stage. He is bound to become a prime favorite. The supporting company is a well-balanced one, and each and every one proved a most artistic. The specialties were all novel and pleasing immensely. To-night they will present "Ticket of Leave Man."

Expeditious Expedition.

Lawyer M. M. Burke, Constable Matt Gibson and John J. Toole, as special officers, went to Ringtown this afternoon to dispossess Charles H. Applegate of the X-ray hotel at that place. The proceedings were instituted by the owner of the premises, Michael Peters, of town, who alleged that Applegate had felt his rights under the lease because he refused to take up the license granted by the court. The result of the expedition has not been learned.

THE COUNTY SEAT NEWS

Some of the Developments in Political Circles There.

LOOKING FOR A SURVEYORSHIP!

A Colored Woman Charged With Attempting to Defraud Uncle Sam of Pension Money With the Use of a Forged Marriage Certificate.

Pottsville, Feb. 10.—The political contest here is confined solely to the election of members of Council. In fact, the contest is becoming very bitter between contending forces anxious to dictate the police appointments. There is a movement on foot with a view to taking the police out of politics by the election of the bluecoats for a period of three years. The people generally favor the idea, but the practical politicians are against it, as was to be expected.

CANDIDATE FOR SURVEYOR.

Speaking of politics, it reminds me that the ex-Senator from the Mahanoy City district is a candidate for the position of Surveyor of the Port at Philadelphia. He has given up all hopes of being a Consulate. My friend Coyle, the gentleman in question, gave it out here last that he fully expected to receive a federal appointment and is inducing his friends to write to the two United States Senators in his behalf. I saw a reply from Quay to one of these friends—a prize fighter from McAloon—who wrote asking Coyle's appointment to the Surveyor position. The reply was of the stereotyped order.

CASES ARGUED.

Judge Endlich, of Reading, arrived here this morning, to wind up all unfinished business in his hands. He heard arguments for a new trial in each of the following cases: E. J. Walbridge vs. The Schuylkill Electric Railway Company; Julia Ward F. vs. The Schuylkill Traction Company; Samuel Block vs. John Dowling; Michael Korida vs. The Schuylkill Traction Company; James Smith vs. The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company; Mary Harley vs. Borough of Mahanoy City.

DEEDS RECORDED.

Deeds for the following real estate transfers were filed with the Recorder: From Adam Benigno and wife to Samuel Gamber, premises in Porter township; John C. Bollitt, et al., to Frank Smith, premises in Middleport; Frank Smith and wife to Anthony Reszwicki, premises in Middleport; Adam Waldner and wife to Amanda Knock, premises in Harry township; John F. Kimmel and wife to Peter Miller, premises in Orwigsburg; Peter Miller to Daniel F. Miller, premises in Orwigsburg.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses were granted to the following: John W. Richards and Martha I. Howells, both of New Philadelphia; Michael Ryan and Mary Darning, both of Mahanoy City.

CHEATING UNCLE SAM.

Mrs. Harriet Waters, alias Harriet Lee, colored, and who lives on Minersville street at this place, is now in jail on a serious charge. She was arrested by Deputy Marshal Foster, and given a hearing before Commissioner Walton, and confessed that she had forged a marriage certificate with the hope of securing a pension, thus defrauding the government. She was removed to the prison at Philadelphia to-day.

MAKING APPROPRIATIONS.

The County Commissioners, in executive session, considered the appropriations asked for by the various offices and departments on the hill. The Commissioners are not yet fully satisfied whether the mills should be levied on the assessment for 1897 or that of 1898. It will make quite a difference if the assessment of this year is taken.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The case of W. F. Sadler vs. First National Bank, of Girardville, has been appealed to the Supreme Court by the bank. The charter of the Simon Danko Roman Catholic Beneficial Society, of Mahanoy City, was filed in the Recorder's office. Councilman Robert Hooper died at his residence in town yesterday. He had been ill for over a year from Bright's disease.

The School Board last night passed a resolution for awarding contributions from scholars to be used in the erection of a proposed Washington University.

"Dick" Coogan, formerly of Shenandoah, and who recently purchased a saloon here, started in to-day to make extensive improvements. A new front will be placed in position. The beer war is still on with no concessions from either side. The home brewers refuse to concede Christmas "presents." Agents for outside breweries are making an effort to supplant the home product.

Argument in Superior Court.

The appeal of ex-Poor Director Neri Dietrich, to set aside the verdict of guilty in the Schuylkill county criminal court, will be argued in Superior Court, which meets next week at Williamsport.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Mrs. Peter Gallagher, who died at her home in Girardville on Tuesday night, will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, requiem services in St. Joseph's Catholic church. Interment in the parish cemetery.

Mrs. Zelinski, an aged Lithuanian resident, died at her home on South Pear alley, yesterday morning. Deceased was aged 90 years. The day previous to her death she had been about her house and attended to all the household duties.

FATAL FIRE IN PITTSBURG.

Six Known Dead and a Large Number of Persons Injured.

Pittsburg, Feb. 10.—A fire of mysterious origin last night in the large six-story cold storage plant of the Chattanooga Lumber Co. destroyed the entire building, together with about a million dollars' worth of merchandise of all kinds stored within its walls. One of the compartments was used as the government bonded warehouse, and contained about 400 barrels of whisky and alcohol. Fifty horses belonging to the lumber company were stabled in one end of the building, but were rescued.

At 11:15 p. m. an explosion of whisky occurred, which blew out the Mulberry alley wall, with terrible results. At the time the alley was filled with firemen, policemen, newspaper men and others, and many were caught by falling walls. There are rumors that at least 25 or 30 men are still under the debris. Five have been taken out dead, among them Police Lieutenant Berry and William Scott, Jr., son of the president of the Chattanooga Lumber Co. There are now four other bodies at the morgue, unrecognised as yet. Many people were seriously injured by flying bricks and beams, some of whom may die.

The telephone, telephone and electric lights at the corner of Thirteenth and Penn streets fell shortly after the explosion and killed an unknown man.

LATER.

Pittsburg, Feb. 10.—So far there have been eighteen bodies taken from the ruins. It is believed there are ten more remaining in the burned structure.

Rhea to Appear Here.

The theatrical event of the season will be the appearance of Mlle Rhea, at Ferguson's theatre, on Monday, February 14th, in her new historical drama, "Napoleon." It is a romantic play in six acts, the scenes being laid in the days of the first Emperor of the French, and covers a period of five years from 1809-14. Among the famous characters in the play are Prince de Talleyrand, the witty diplomat, Marie Louise, Napoleon's second wife, and many others noted for their beauty, wit and chivalry.

"Josephine" is a fascinating and fruitful subject for the imagination of the playwright, the tender, captivating and thoroughly feminine nature of the beautiful Empress being one which offers great opportunities for an actress, and it has never been more truthfully or effectively illustrated than by this great French woman. Of William Harris, who assumes the title role, little can be said but praise. Others in the company are Frederick Vroom, Laurion Rees, Walter Lemos, Fred. C. Hoey, E. C. Gillespie, Robert Whittier, James Dunn and Misses Rachel Crothers, Jane Lemos, Mignon Fulton, Ellen Fulton, Catherine Sheridan and Constance Mitchell.

A Popular Official.

One of the most popular officials at the court house is Recorder Emanuel Jenkyns, and for the first time since that official has been placed on a salary, the office last year has earned over and above its expenses in salaries the sum of $1,200.38, which sum has been returned to the county treasury. Mr. Jenkyns can always be found at his desk and his clerks are just as attentive to their duties. The present Recorder has revolutionized that office which retards to the interests of the taxpayers.

Samuel Block will offer for the next 20 days, men's and boys' odd suits that cost from $5 to $10, at $4.

The Girard Estate.

The report of Girard College, at Philadelphia, shows that during the month of January, 1893, there had been 26 indentures cancelled, 19 admissions, 1 death and that the present census of the college is 1523. The report of the committee of the Girard Estate for January, 1893, was submitted and stated that the rents and royalties from collieries amounted to $45,583.92; miscellaneous payments, $5,180; net income, $49,827.70.

SHERIFF SHOT FIRST.

Testimony Regarding the Signal For the Massacre at Lattimer.

THE JUDGE WARNS THE JURORS.

Instructs Them That Should They Receive Threatening Letters They Must Hand Them Over to the District Attorney—Deputies' Threat For Blood.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 10.—When court opened yesterday for the trial of Sheriff Martin and his deputies, Judge Lattimer spoke to the jurors about receiving letters bearing upon any point in the trial. He said: "If you receive any letters with reference to the trial, whether anonymous or signed, it is your duty to hand them over to the district attorney, and you must not allow of them to make any impression upon your mind."

The first witness was John Your-shewkovic, one of the Harwood strikers. He said that on Sept. 9 the strikers held a meeting at Harwood, and they understood that if they could get the Lattimer men to join them they would win the strike. They decided not to carry anything having the semblance of weapons, and to behave quietly and peacefully. At West Hazleton they met the sheriff and the deputies, who pushed them around with guns and hit several of them. One man and the witness at the furniture pointed out Deputy Arlo E. Platt, tore down the flag. At Lattimer the sheriff stopped them, hit two men in the front rank, and tried to shoot his revolver. It snapped twice, and then exploded. Light away there was a volley of shots from the deputies, and many of the strikers fell. "A bullet passed through my hat," the witness continued, "and then I fell and lay down until there was no more shooting. Then I ran away."

Steve Jusko, whose arm was broken and held out by doctors of a rise in the hands of a deputy at West Hazleton, stated that at the time of the assault he was behaving in an orderly manner and saying nothing. Afterwards, he said, the deputies put him in the lock-up for two days, and then he was taken to the hospital. He was laid up for two months.

Michael Popps was recalled and put through a strong cross examination. The only feature of importance which developed was the fact that after the sheriff had told the strikers to disperse they continued on their way to Lattimer.

Lewis Kitzel told how, on arriving at West Hazleton with the strikers, two deputies seized him by the coat, hustled and pushed him around and tore his shirt. He said a number of the men were so frightened by the action of the deputies in threatening them with their guns that they ran home and did not march to Lattimer. "At Lattimer," the witness said, "the sheriff asked for the committee, and while a man was looking for the three committee men the sheriff pulled two fellows out of the line and tried to fire his revolver. I started to run at once, and dropped down behind a little stone about 20 yards away. There was a volley, and then a lot of separate shots, and they came so thick around where I lay that I ran further and got into a shanty, but the deputies fired on the shanty and a bullet went through my hat." On cross examination he admitted that the sheriff had told the strikers to go home, and that they disobeyed and marched on to Lattimer.

Elery Bonin, an undertaker of Hazleton, who buried 13 of the victims, gave their names and described their wounds, saying all were shot in the back except one, who had a bullet in his forehead.

John Androski told the same story as many others about the meeting on the night before the shooting, the march to West Hazleton, what occurred there, and the march to Lattimer. He said that after the shooting the sheriff and two men ran right out of the line of deputies and upon the railroad track, crying out, "Come back, you men, and we'll fix you!" to the fleeing strikers, at the same time shooting two or three times. The witness pointed out Frank Clark as one of the deputies with the sheriff. He could not identify the other.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE.

From March 3rd. Will be the Rule at L. Goldin's Mammoth store.

The popular clothing mart of Shenandoah, L. Goldin's mammoth store, is the scene of much activity just now. He will dispose of his present stock to the people of Shenandoah at auction prices until February 19. After that date the stock will be removed to New York and sold at auction. Take the advantage of the opportunity, and secure clothing at 80 cents on the dollar. After March 3rd strictly one price to all, rich and poor, will be the rule. Your child can come to this store and secure clothing as cheap as if you came yourself. My store is the leading clothing house in Shenandoah and we are confident that with One Price we can prosper fully as well as we do at present under the old rate system. I will deposit a check for $200 with a responsible Shenandoah citizen as a forfeit to any charitable institution in case it may be shown that I have deviated from the One Price system after March 3rd, 1893. Every article in the store will be marked with plain figures and at a price so low that people will be ashamed to ask us to reduce it. By February 19th, we are going to send our stock now on hand to the auction houses, but until that date we will give the benefit to the people of Shenandoah and vicinity. Until February 19th, we will positively sell our goods way below cost to make room for our new stock.
