RIOTOUS SCENES IN THE COURT.

Judge Compelled to Order the Room Cleared—A Crowd of Barristers Attack the Guards Who Are Called Upon to Suppress Them.

Paris, Feb. 10.—Yesterday over 200 barristers, in their robes, gathered at the public entrance to the court where the Zola trial is in progress, and indulged in horse play. When the presiding judge ordered them not to obstruct the passage the barristers made a demonstration against the judge. Thereupon the commandant of the Republican guards sent a detachment of troops to quell the disturbance. The intervention of the military was ill received and led to a violent affray. The barristers rushed upon the guards and struck them. One of the young lawyers was arrested, but after quiet had been restored he was released.

The arrival of the officers in uniform, including Generals Boisdeffre and Gonse, Major Esterhazy, General Mercier and Major Paty du Clam, who had been summoned, was the signal for cheers for the French army. M. Zola entered by the private door unobserved. The deafening chatter in the court room was silenced by the entrance of the presiding judge.

M. Laborie, counsel for M. Zola, protested against the limitation of the evidence of Madame Dreyfus, and scathingly denounced the scenes in court, the biassed reports in the newspapers and the attacks on his client as being unworthy of France.

General Boisdeffre, replying to M. Laborie, admitted that as minister for war, before he had testified at the Esterhazy court martial, he had received from Major Esterhazy a certain document which concerned the Dreyfus case, but he refused to give any further particulars on the ground of professional secrecy.

M. Laborie protested that in a court of justice "professional secrecy" could not exist, whereupon General Boisdeffre retorted: "Professional secrecy cannot be separated from state secrecy."

The general admitted that Colonel Picquart had been transferred to Tunis owing to his being favorable to Dreyfus, and, the witness added, that he, personally, was convinced of the guilt of Dreyfus, while other facts, before and after the court martial, which had come to his knowledge, made this conviction unshakable. This statement made a sensation in court.

General Gonse followed, and at the outset of the examination had a violent altercation with M. Laborie, in which the general public joined. The tumult reached such a pitch that the presiding judge ordered the court to be cleared, which the municipal guards promptly did. The court resumed its session five minutes later, and General Gonse explained that he had not meant all he said. Thereupon the incident was allowed to drop.

General Gonse then spoke of the investigations of Colonel Picquart, whom he had encouraged, but the general added that he told the colonel to avoid arresting Major Esterhazy, which the colonel wished to do.

General Mercier, the former minister of war, who was next examined, declared that he believed the bordereau and other documents abstracted from the war office had been communicated to the newspapers by the Dreyfus family.

M. Laborie immediately asked that Mme. Dreyfus be allowed to confront General Mercier and deny his statement, but the presiding judge refused to allow her to do so.

Counsel for M. Zola then pressed General Mercier to say if it was true that a secret document had been communicated to the Dreyfus court martial behind the backs of Dreyfus and his counsel. The general refused to reply.

At the conclusion of his examination General Mercier was vociferously cheered.

M. Trarieux, who was minister of justice at the time of the Dreyfus court martial, was the next witness. After his evidence, which did not convey any startling facts, the court adjourned.

A crowd of from 10,000 to 15,000 persons, noisy and inclined to excesses, was in the neighborhood of the Palais de Justice at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but it was kept in a semblance of order by large bodies of police and was obliged to be content with shouting against M. Zola, who left the court almost unobserved. Generals Boisdeffre, Mercier and Gonse were loudly cheered.

M. Yves Guyot, leaving the court on foot, was recognized and hustled near the Pont Neuf, the crowd threatening to throw him into the river. Two police sergeants rescued him.

There was sporadic fighting between both men and women on the outskirts of the crowd.

A WOMAN'S SUFFERINGS.

Nervousness and Female Weaknesses Ruin Many Lives.

These Poor Sufferers Have Found a Sure Way to Get Well.

Female weaknesses are more common to-day than ever before. Constant work and worry weaken the nerves and vitality, and female weakness follows. As a result there is pain, discharges, suppression, irregularities, weak back, inflammations, bearing down, bad taste in the mouth, loss of appetite, faintness, constipation, nervousness, sleeplessness and irritability. Mrs S. Taylor, of 251 West 17th St., New York City, says:

"For years I have been unable to attend to my household duties owing to severe sickness. I was troubled terribly with female weakness, suppression of the menses for over six years, nervous exhaustion, sleeplessness and general debility. I had coldness of limbs and feet, and was in a helpless condition. I feared I should never get well.

"I had been under a doctor's care all the time but got no better. I was utterly prostrated, and good for nothing. By the advice of a friend who was cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I began using this wonderful medicine. After taking it a short time I was completely cured of all my troubles. My nerve strength returned, my female weakness entirely left me, my nervousness disappeared, I slep well and was in perfect health. For this blessing I have to thank Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is a wonderful medicine."

Such testimonials as these are always the means of curing thousands of suffering women who are wise enough to accept the advice of those who have been cured. Countless numbers of people all over the land have regained their health by this wonderful remedy, and are crying out to their fellow creatures to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and be made well and strong. It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

ADOLPH L. LUETGERT GUILTY.

The Jury Fixes His Punishment at Imprisonment For Life.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Adolph L. Luetgert was last evening convicted of the murder of his wife and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of natural life. Luetgert received the verdict with a laugh. It was 10:50 when word was sent to the court room by the jury that they had agreed upon a verdict.

Judge Gary, whose home is within a few blocks of the criminal court building, had informed the jury that he would return as soon as they had agreed upon a verdict, and he arrived promptly. Clerk Knopf read the verdict, as follows: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment, and fix his punishment at imprisonment for life."

There was a hush, and all eyes turned on Luetgert. He laughed, and laughed in a manner that showed plainly that he did not regard the verdict a serious matter, comparatively speaking.

Mr. Harmon entered a motion for a new trial, which was entered, and will be argued within a few days. Luetgert was led back to jail in apparently good spirits, and comforted by the assurances of his lawyers that he will get a new trial, and that the state will not be able to convict him a second time.

DE LOME MUST DEPART.

Spanish Minister Practically Admits Insulting the President

IN A LETTER TO A FRIEND.

The State Department Has Communicated to Minister Woodford on the Subject—A Report That De Lome Has Already Tendered His Resignation.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The publication in the morning newspapers of what purported to be an autograph letter written by Senor Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish minister, to his friend, Canalejas, criticizing the president with the utmost freedom, caused a sensation in official circles here, and soon will be followed by Minister de Lome's departure from the United States. In this letter Minister de Lome spoke of President McKinley as "a low politician, catering to the rabble."

At the outset there was a disposition to question the authenticity of the letter, and a report was sent out that the minister had pronounced it a forgery, but as bit by bit the circumstantial evidence accumulated, until it was finally announced officially that the minister declined to deny the authorship of the letter, all doubt was dissipated, and the only question that remained was as to the line of action to be pursued by our government toward the offending minister. The writing of this letter is unquestionably an offense against the amenities of diplomatic relations, and such offenses almost invariably have been regarded in the United States, as in other capitals, as sufficient ground for the termination of the official status of the letter writer.

As soon as the letter appeared in the press the state department officials began an effort to settle its authenticity, and when it had learned all that could be developed on that point, and had been told that the minister himself refused to deny writing it, the consideration of the next step began. Assistant Secretary Day was in consultation with the president on the subject at least four times during the official day, and then spent much time in framing his message to United States Minister Woodford at Madrid. The official statement of the sending of this message was accompanied by a declination to indicate its contents at this time, the department merely giving to the press the following statement:

"Minister de Lome does not deny writing the letter. This department has communicated with General Woodford on the subject. Until that communication reaches the Spanish government it would be improper to in any manner state the contents of the message to General Woodford."

While the department refused to add anything to this meager announcement, it can be stated without question that Mr. Woodford was directed to lay the facts developed before the Spanish government, together with the statement that in view of the minister's refusal to deny the authorship of the letter the Spanish government is looked to with confidence to deal with the case properly. This amounts to an invitation to recall the minister, presuming that he himself has not already taken steps to vacate his position.

No doubt is entertained of a compliance with the implied suggestion, but in case there should be undue delay in acting the state department would feel called upon to move directly in the matter and give the minister his passports, as was done when Sir Julian Pauncefote's predecessor, Lord Sackville-West, wrote the celebrated Murchison letter.

Lord Sackville-West wrote a letter to one Murchison, in Pomona, Cal., in September, 1888, in reply to his request for guidance, as a naturalized American of British birth, in casting his vote for president. In his reply his lordship simply said that any political party which openly favored the mother country at that time would lose popularity, and the party then in power was well aware of this fact. He believed, however, that President Cleveland would manifest a spirit of conciliation in dealing with the questions involved in his message. When Secretary Bayard received the ambassador's admission of the letter's genuineness Lord Salisbury was urged to recall him. This the British premier declined to do. Then the ambassador was invited by President Cleveland to retire, and did so. From October, 1888, until late in the spring of 1889 the British government was represented here only by a charge.

De Lome's Reported Resignation.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Special dispatches from Washington received in this city state that Minister De Lome cabled his resignation to the Spanish government once on Tuesday and twice yesterday, but up to a late hour he had received no reply from Madrid.

To be the mother of many children is ranked among nature's chief blessings but when the cares of the busy housewife are added to the trials of frequent motherhood, it is too great a burden for a woman who is not in prime health and condition. Every woman who is called upon to bear the ordeal of bringing many children into the world needs the support and reinforcement of that wonderful strength - promoting "Favorite Prescription" originated by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and one of the most eminent of living specialists in treating the ailments of women.

Mrs. David H. Langley, of Lancing, Morgan Co., Tenn., in a recent letter to Dr. Pierce, writes: "I am now thirty-six years old and have given birth to ten children. Eight only are living. I have twin boys six years old. The same spring after they were born I was confined to my bed all spring and summer with female complaint; had to be badly. I could hardly walk around the house without feeling worse. I was restless at night, sleep almost left me, and I was almost a skeleton. I did not call my doctor as I had tried the doctors twice before when I was down with the same trouble, and my husband paid out a great deal for me. I received no lasting benefit. I had almost lost all hope of ever being able to do anything. My husband had to work very hard, and I could not even attend to the house. No one can know the distress of my mind as well as body. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the only medicine that seemed to do me any good. After I had taken the first bottle and part of the second, I could sleep well, and all my troubles began to get better. I believe I took eight bottles and then I felt like a different person. I gave birth to another baby and my old complaint came back. I began using the 'Favorite Prescription' and was soon relieved and was able to do my work, including the washing."

Mothers would be immensely helped in raising their children strong and healthy by the sound professional advice contained in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This thousand-page book will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Address, World's Dispensary Med. Assn., Buffalo, N. Y., or send 21 stamps for a cloth-bound copy.
