RAILWAY ECHOES.

Changes on the Pennsylvania and Lehigh Railroads in Operation.

The new schedules of the Pennsylvania and Lehigh Valley Railroads went into effect yesterday and there is considerable complaint by the traveling public as to the new arrangements of trains on the Lehigh road.

The new evening train on the Pennsylvania Railroad started on its 8:15 a. m. schedule to-day with a number of passengers on board, among them S. G. M. Hollenper, J. E. Coyle, M. M. Burke, E. W. Shoemaker, J. H. Bechtel, W. J. Brown, Constable Matt. Gibson and John E. Kishelowski, of town; P. J. Ferguson, of East Creek; Edward Welch, of Brownsville, and Louis Bender, of Wm. Penn.

The members of the crew brought from Schuylkill to take charge of the Pottsville short line train are stopping at the Ferguson House until they can secure houses and move their families here.

The engineer and fireman on the short line must remain with their engine all night between runs until the company assigns a "hozier" to look after the engine, which will be done in a day or two.

The Joyce Case.

Harrisburg, Feb. 21.—To-day was fixed by the court here to pass sentence upon Thomas J. Joyce, editor of the Mahanoy City Black Diamond, who was found guilty of perjury, on oath, at John J. Coyle's trial.

The defendant and his counsel were present, but for some reason the matter was continued until the next term of court.

POTTSVILLE COURT.

Judge Koch and Bechtel on the Bench in Motion Court.

Pottsville, Feb. 21.—Judges Bechtel and Koch were on the bench this morning and heard motions and other matters brought to their attention.

The arbitration to determine who owns the land occupied by a tenant of Mrs. Winifred Cherry, at Lost Creek, upon petition of the Grand Estate, will be held on Saturday.

The arbitrators are C. F. King, Henry C. Mastan and Andrew Cochran.

W. A. Marr, counsel for the Lakeside Railway Co., has filed answer to the petition of the borough of Shenandoah that a preliminary injunction be granted restraining the company from operating its cars in Shenandoah until they comply with the ordinance and lower their tracks on East Centre street to grade.

The company claims to have placed their cars at the grade given by the borough authorities. No date has been fixed for argument.

Judge Endlich filed his decision in several cases tried before him upon application for new trials. The case of Haley vs. Borough of Mahanoy City, application for new trial; and the case of Schuykill Traction Co. vs. Michael Kerka vs. Schuykill Traction Co., the motion for a new trial was overruled.

The case of Julia Ward, of Shenandoah, vs. Lakeside Railway Company, in which the prosecutor was awarded damages at the last term of court for the loss of a horse and other damages, Judge Endlich overruled the motion in arrest of judgment, and a new trial was ordered on the condition that the plaintiff accept a reduction in the verdict, making the sum $103 with interest. Should they refuse a new trial is granted. M. M. Burke, Esq., represented Ward and McHenry while the company.

James Smith, of Shenandoah, who brought suit for damages against the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, was refused a new trial on a non-suit. Mr. Wadlinger asked for an exception and it was not.

E. W. Shoemaker, Esq., filed the report of the examiner in the divorce proceedings of Catherine Lantz vs. John Lord.

The bond of Andrew Beane, Supervisor-elect of West Mahanoy township, in the sum of $500, with John J. Moran as surety, was filed and approved by court.

John J. Delaney, convicted of selling liquor without a license, and sentenced to pay $500 fine and imprisonment, made application for discharge, being unable to pay the fine and costs. The court ordered his discharge.

The case of Christ Schmidt vs. Michael Polakoff defendant and William Shmielewsky and John Ruschewich, garnishees, an application being made on the part of the garnishees, court ordered that the application to open judgment be granted and the garnishee permitted to make a defense.

Ruschewich agreed to purchase a saloon provided he could get the license, but his application was refused he having violated the license law.

A. W. Schalk, Esq., called the court's attention to the agreement made that the day for argument on the motion for a new trial for the County Commissioners, found guilty of misdemeanor in office, was to be fixed to-day. The court this morning fixed a charge in writing, the stenographer had a portion of the testimony, the most essential portion thereof, written out, and the court's charge. Mr. Schalk said the case should be disposed of before the beginning of the March term of court, that if it is not it will drag along for several weeks and perhaps months. To wait until the balance of the testimony is transcribed would necessitate a delay of three or four weeks. The court stated that any party next week would do for argument and suggested that counsel agree on next Tuesday or Wednesday. The counsel for the defense wanted time for consultation, and later in the day agreed on Tuesday next as the day for argument.

One of the counsel for the Taxpayers' Association, intimated that if the Commissioners fought for delay with a view to retaining their present offices, the case against the present board of Commissioners would be pushed. He also said the case against the Controller would very likely be called for trial during the first week of the March term of court.

THE SEASON OF LENT.

Regulations Adopted by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Following are the regulations for the Lenten season of 1895 as promulgated by Archbishop Ryan, of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia:

1. All the faithful who have completed their first year are bound to observe the feast of Lent, unless dispensed for legitimate reasons.

2. The persons exempted from fasting are the infirm, those under twenty years of age, women in pregnancy or nursing infants, those who are engaged in laborious occupations and those who are enfeebled by old age.

3. On the days of Lent, a fast is allowed, except on Sundays.

4. On the days on which permission is granted to eat meat, both meat and fish are not to be used at the same meal.

5. A collation or partial meal is allowed in the evening. It should never exceed eight ounces.

By virtue of an indult of the Holy See, dated August 3, 1897, the following special dispensations are granted:

6. Bread, fruit, cheese, fruit of all kinds, salads, vegetables and fish are permitted in the collation. Milk and eggs are also allowed.

ONE OF YOUR WANTS.

In Considering Your Needs Do Not Forget This.

If You Do You Will Make a Serious Mistake at This Season.

Something of Deep and Peculiar Interest Just Now.

There are many needs during the spring months, but none more necessary or urgent than the use of a spring medicine. The blood requires it, and the nerves, liver, kidneys and bowels must have it if you desire to keep strong and vigorous, and maintain your good health. Those who are weak, tired and nervous must take it, and those who do not feel just right should do so, or serious ill health may follow.
