THE "yellow kid" journalism is beng rapped on the knuckles for its fanciful pictures and sensational reports of the Maine disaster. This climax was reached by the offer of $50,000 for the arrest of the man responsible. This was a safe offer and a bid for cheap notoriety.

ONE of the close friends of the President makes a statement concerning the views of the executive on the Cuban situation. The drift of it is that the President occupies a conservative position, is resolved not to be moved into hasty action, and that he is confident the independence of Cuba can eventually be achieved by negotiations without war between this country and Spain. That the President will act deliberately and with a full conviction of duty is not to be doubted. But he speaks for himself as occasion arises. The as surance that he will not be rash was not needed. The intimation that Cuba may possibly achieve its free dom by a guaranteed indemnity is Testing news.

ry has never produced any woman who exercised such a vide and beneficent influence. In commenting upon the great work accomplished by many within a limited circle, our contemporary points our the fact that this fearless and eloquent champion of temperance has made her impress throughout the United States and in foreign lands as well. "For thirty years," says the Star, "she was by all odds the blest and most influential advocate of temperance reform, and for twothirds of that time she gave her whole energies to promoting the organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the extension its work. She was mainly instrumental in securing the enactment of legislation in more than two-thirds of the states having for its object the education of the rising generation upon the subject of the evil effects of he use of alcoholic beverages upon the physical system.

"Miss Willard was tireless in her field of activity, and had the faculty of inspiring her followers to exceeding diligence and energy. Her presnce was the signal for a fresh and vigorous attack upon the lines of he enemy, and her burning words stirred all who listened to them with enewed zeal. She has built for her alf a monument in the hearts of nillions of people, at home and abroad, and her memory will be sherished for generations to come." Her place will be hard to fill, but Pennsylvania has some efficient workers in the Union, and one of these may be called to the head of the national organization. Either Mrs. Jones, of Philadelphia, or Mrs. Shambers, of Chester county, who have been so effective in the performance of all the duties assigned them. would push on the work of the future with enthusiasm and success.
