Burned While Thawing Powder. Newark, N. J., March 1.-James Me-rino, 50 years old, of New York, and Frank Petulme, aged 23, of this city, both employed as laborers on sewers at Forest Hill, near this city, were seriously injured yesterday by the explosion of powder. They were thaw-ing it out, in order to prepare a blast, when the heat caused the powder to explode. Both men were burned about the head and hands, and were removed to a hospital. They will recover.
