COLITICAL CHANGE IN CANADA.

Conservatives Carry Ontario Province After Twenty-five Years. Toronto, March 2.-General elections for the Ontario legislature took place throughout the province yesterday, and resulted in a virtual, if not an actual defeat for the Liberal government, which has held power for mere than 25 years. The contest has been exciting, the Conservative leader, J. P. Whitney, being a young man and a new leader, while A. S. Hardy, tha premier, was the successor of Sir Oliver Mowatt, now lieutenant governor of

The Patrons have been practically a standard. branch of the Liberal party, so that the government has had a majority of thirty or more. The returns indicate a great revulsion of feeling. In the 94 constituencies elections took place yesterday in 93, the other being postponed. In all but two or three com-plete returns are in, with the following results: Conservatives elected, 46; Liberals, 44: in doubt, 3. The probabilities favor a slight Conservative majority. Two cabinet ministers have been defeated, John Dryden, minister, of agriculture, and J. M. Gibson, commissioner of crowd lands.

The result is a surprise to the supporters of the government. The timber alleged to have favored Michigan lum-bermen at the expense of Cammians. had much to do with Premier Hardy's defeat. Toronto returned four Con-
