New York, March 12.-About 25 dele-gates from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Connecticut, members of the Five States Milk Producers' union, met in this city yesterday to effect a permanent or ganization. The association was organized with temporary officers two years ago. The object of the proposed organization is to make an effort to regulate the price of milk, the farmers composing the organization claiming they should receive not less than $1 per can, while the present price is but 74 cents. A permanent organization was affected by the selection of A. G. Loomis, who represents the Eric road section, as president.
