MR. WANAMAKER SAYS Senators Quay and Penrose own and control twenty-six of the Pennsylvania mem-bers of the House of Representatives. There are thirty, and as three are Democrats, there would remain only one Republican who is not owned by the Senators, according to Mr. Wan-amaker. What district does he repre-sent, the people would like to know.

SPEAKING on the subject of adver-tising, one of Philadelphia's leading merchants says: "The success of a business depends on three things—merchandise, service and advertising; and advertising I regard as the dynamo power of the business. It makes the business when taken seriously. One trouble about it is that merchants do not always take it seriously. Under present conditions no business can be conducted successfully without advertising. It is the fundamen-tal principle of business, and should receive the attention of the head of the business."

THE collapse of the wooden trestle at Boston Run Junction ought to be sufficient to convince the Pennsyl-vania Railroad officials that the time has come to dispense with wooden structures of this kind. They are dangerous to the public safety, says an exchange. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company appreciates all this and has adopted a policy to avoid just such accidents as occurred at Boston Run. Sometime ago the company decided to replace wooden bridges with iron structures on all its branches, and the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

EACH succeeding grand jury in this county directs the attention of the court to the large number of un-necessary petty cases returned to court, and yet there seems to be no dimini-tion of these cases. In Lawrence county, however, things are different, and a much needed reform in this respect is enforced. The other day Judge Wallace instructed the costs in one of these "petty unnecessary cases" to be placed on the Justice of the Peace who had returned it for the manifest purpose of the fees that were in it. That remedy will cer-tainly prove effective, and if the same authority was exercised in Shenyl-kill county this unnecessary burden upon the taxpayers would cease.

New evidence crops out from day to day indicative of stranded relations among the anthracite coal roads, says the Philadelphia Stockholder. It has been repeatedly pointed out in these columns that the trade was not only in a demoralized condition, but that

Spring

Is the season for new life in nature, new vigor in our physical system. As the fresh sap enters life into the trees, so our blood should give us renewed strength and vigor. In its impure state it cannot do this, and the aid of Hood's Sarsaparilla is imperatively needed.

It will purify, vitalize and enrich the blood, and with this solid, correct foundation, it will build up good health, create a good appetite, tone your stomach and digestive organs, strengthen your nerves and over-come or prevent that tired feeling. the principal roads were, to an extent, antagonizing each other when-ever the opportunity offered. Latest developments in this connection is the withdrawal of the joint coal tariffs which have existed between the Lehigh Valley and Jersey Cen-tral. It is understood the latter took the initiative in the matter, inform-ing the Lehigh Valley that, after a certain date, said to be April 1, the joint tariffs on coal between the roads would no longer apply, with the exception of the Long Branch divisions. This means that the Jersey Central wants its own territory to itself, and the only way by which the Lehigh Valley will be able to ship coal into the territory would be at a rate al-most prohibitory. The action is similar to that taken by the Reading over a year ago with reference to its Philadelphia trade, and is a further loss of territory to the Lehigh Valley.

Give the Children a Drink called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1/4 as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

INDIANS DO NOT RECKON HIGH.

How $348 Was "Heap Plenty" in Settlement of a Claim For $3,000.

It is not so easy now to cheat the In-dians in bargaining as it was in the days when Manhattan Island was bought from them for $24. Their long intercourse with the white men has taught them many things about the value of their possessions, and they are pretty sharp in making the ordinary trades which come up in their daily life. Nevertheless it is still true that when it comes to a question of large sums of money—thousands or even hundreds of dollars—the average Indian is bewildered at the mere idea of so much wealth. An incident which happened not long ago in New Mexico illustrates this point.

An Indian, while crossing the tracks of one of the railroads, had been killed by a train. His squaw demanded $2,000 as an indemnity for the loss of her husband, and the company were willing to settle the matter. So they sent to deal with the squaw a man who had had considerable experience in negotiating with the Indians. He took with him several bags of "dobo," or Mexican silver dollars, which pass freely among the Indians and settlers in that part of the country. Sitting down gravely with the aggrieved widow, he began counting out the big shining dollars one by one. When the pile had reached 100 he glanced inquiringly at the squaw. But she shook her head firmly. The agent went on with his counting. At the end of another 100 he looked up again. The squaw repeated the negative shake of her head, but her eyes began to brighten at the heap of sil-ver. At 300 the agent paused a little longer. His customer still held out, though with unmistakable signs of weakening. The agent counted more slowly and im-pressively. When he reached $348, the squaw stopped her hand.

"Heap plenty, heap plenty," she said, with decision, and gathering up the sil-ver she accepted in perfect contentment this settlement of her claim for $3,000.—New York Tribune.

SIMPLE AT FIRST.

It is Foolish to Neglect any Form of Piles.

Cure Them at the Beginning.

Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound, healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent.

Here are some voluntary and unsolicited testimonials we have lately received:

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure."

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from piles for forty years and from itching piles for twenty years and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure have effectively cured me."

Most druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure or will get it for you if you ask them to. It is 50 cts. for full-size package and is put up only by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL,

At Bloomsburg, Pa., won its standing and reputation by the thorough work of its faculty. It is a better school to-day than ever before; not simply because of better material equipment, (this is important), but because of a stronger corps of teachers. They are nearly all college and university trained. Recent additions have been made.

Spring term will open March 29th, 1938. Write for information to J. P. WELSH, Ph. D., Principal, Bloomsburg.

The Story of the Steerage.

"There is a vast difference," said an officer of the Cunard steamship, "between the appearance of steerage passengers and turning to Europe and those coming to America."

"On the westward voyage the faces of the immigrants are bright with expectancy and hope. They are ready to doubtless, laid away at night dreaming of the new land. You can see that they have been inspired by the rosyate visions painted for them by their friends or relatives who have succeeded on this side of the water. Those who go back to stay are not many. You can pick them out by their dejected looks. They have found that hard work is just as necessary to get along in the States as it is in Europe."

"Two great majority of the immigrants stay. From my observations for the last 15 years aboard ship I think I am competent to say that America gets the very best of the European blood. Adventurers stay at home. It is usually the energetic and adventurous that cut loose from the ties in the old world. Forty six per cent of the steerage passengers have their relatives or friends who have in a measure succeeded over here. I think those who have made a 'go' of it deserve success, because, as a rule, they have won it by well directed toil or superior administrative ability."—New York Sun.

DO IT YOURSELF.

You can tell just as well as a physician whether your kidneys are diseased or healthy. The way to do it is to take a bottle of glass tubing, and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment, it is diseased. At the bottom after standing a day and night, there is something wrong with the kidneys. Another sure sign of disease is a desire to urinate often, and still another sign is pain in the back. If urine stains linen, there is no doubt that the kidneys are affected.

Any and all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and of the urinary passages are cured by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. There is no question about its being the best and surest medicine in the world for such troubles. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine, and people, young or old, who take it are not compelled to get up a number of times during the night. For putting an end to that scalding pain experienced in passing urine, nothing is so good as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer; is pleasant to the taste, and does not seem to be medicine. Persons desiring to use it every day should often require the use of instruments to push back the sandy matter as the urine can be voided. In such cases Favorite Remedy must be used in conjunction with cathartics and disease may prove fatal. It is sold for one dollar a bottle at all drug stores. It is well worth many times its price.

Samples Free.

If you wish to test Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy before buying it, send your mail post office address to the Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy Co., 123 S. Jordan St., Philadelphia, Pa. We will then mail you a sample bottle free, as well as circulars giving full information as to its use. Every copy of the HERALD can depend upon the genuineness of this liberal offer, and all sufferers from kidney troubles should take advantage of it at once.

WASHINGTON.

PERSONALLY-CONDUCTED TOUR VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The next three-day personally-conducted tour to Washington via Pennsylvania Railroad will leave New York and Philadelphia on Thursday, March 31. Opportunity will be afforded to visit, under the intelligent direction of an experienced Tourist Agent, all the principal points of interest, the Capitol, Executive Mansion, Congressional Library, the Monument, National Museum, &c. An experienced chaperon will also accompany the party as a companion for the un-accustomed lady tourists.

The rate, $14.50 from New York, $11.50 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other points, includes all necessary expenses during the entire trip—transportation, hotel accommodations and guides.

Persons desiring to return via Gettysburg may do so by purchasing tickets at $20 extra, which include this privilege. An opportunity will also be afforded to visit Mt. Vernon and Arlington at a slight additional expense.

For itineraries, tickets, and full information apply to ticket agents; Tourist Agent, 1198 Broadway, New York; or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

A Few Pointers.

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. This disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 25 and 50c. Sold by all druggists; ask for a free sample to-day.

Sustaining His Reputation.

A story is told of the Prince de Conti, whose reputation for cruelty stood high. He was going to mass with some ladies, when he halted at a door for instructions concerning a passer who had just been caught on the grounds.

"Give him 100 stripes and imprison him in a dungeon for two years," was the answer.

One lady, horror-stricken, went to the hall afterward, but was only laughed in her face.

"The prince only said that to keep up his reputation. His royal highness came to me directly after mass and begged me to see that the poor wretch was only sent away from the neighborhood for two months, and that his family was well looked after during his absence."—Synagogue Standard.

THE WESTERN WIND.

Yet on my cheek I feel the western wind And hear it tending to the orchard trees And to the faint and flower-forsaken bees Tales of fair meadows, green with constant streams, Anon, anon, rising blue and cool behind, Where in moist dells the purple orchids gleam, And stirred with white the virgin's bowers is twined.

So the overwearied pilgrim, as he ferms along life's summer woad, at times is fanned, even at noon, by the cool, refreshing breeze of a seaman and a soldier land.

UNAPPRECIATED GIFTS.

Philanthropy That Was Inexplicable to Those Who Profited by It.

A gentleman who gave six drinking fountains to Boston in 1855 has had some queer experiences in his attempts to give like benefits to other places. He has business interests in a western city of large size, and as he realized the need there of public drinking fountains, he went some time ago to the mayor of that city to make a formal offer of a gift of nine such foun-tains. The mayor was more than sur-prised and had a long interview with the would be benefactor, during which he tried to discover his object in making the gift. He failed to be impressed by the sim-ple statement that, beyond filling the pub-lic need of just such fountains, there was no motive to prompt the offer. The mayor was incredulous, and the generous offer was thought to be the harmless work of a crank. Indeed, the Boston man who made the offer of the gift afterward heard that the mayor had spoken of his "inter-view with a crank" to those whom he consulted regarding the matter. It was only after considerable persuasion and ex-ercise of diplomacy that his gift of the nine fountains was accepted. They have been in position for some time now.

In another instance the same benefactor noted the need of street signs in a town which had no signs at all. He offered to furnish free of cost several hundred of these, made of iron, and had difficulty in making the gift acceptable. Even after this was brought about it was a long time before the town would accept the gift. The point of placing the signs in position. He once gave a small library to a town which had none, feeling that it would be an ex-celent nucleus from which to build up a better library. The town accepted the books with some indignation to his an-ity apparently, so unusual did it seem to the town fathers to have a stranger inter-ested enough in their welfare to make so generous a gift. The books, by the way, were placed in a room set apart for them and they were practically let severely alone by the people of the town, who failed to realize the intended kindness to them.—Boston Transcript.

Broad Scotch and Slang.

Language has never been stationary—least of all the English. It has been im-proved, and it has been corrupted, and it may be improved or it may be corrupted again. Modern Greek is not equal to the ancient. What atrocious corruptions the Latin underwent as it degenerated into Italian, Spanish and French! Happily, after it had become comparatively barbarous, men of high literary genius appeared, under whom the process of corruption was arrested, and in each of these three cases the language was again molded into a rich and powerful vehicle of thought. When-ever the language of a nation is becoming barbarous the nation is becoming barbarous itself, and the tendencies in our day toward barbarism that need to be watched.

The rage for the broad Scotch of Ian Maclaren and for American slang and London slang and slang of all sorts in stories that aims at pleasing a vulgar can hardly fail of leaving some mark in cul-ture. Who is to regulate our speech? Not parliament, not sovereign or senate. It depends on the good taste and the care-fulness of the educated men and women of a country.—Professor W. G. Blackie in Homiletic Review.

I suffered for years from weakness and nervous heart trouble. Would feel weary and used up in the morning, had no ambition and my work seemed a burden. A friend recommended Dr. Miles' Nerve Restores Health, and I purchased a bottle under protest. I had tried so many remedies un-successfully, I thought it no use. But it gave me a restful sleep, a good appetite and restored me to energetic health. It is a grand good medicine, and I will gladly write anyone inquiring, full particulars of my satisfactory experience."

IT IS EASY TO TELL.

People who fail to look after their health are like the carpenter who neglects to sharpen his tools. People are not apt to get anxious about their health soon enough. If you are "not quite well" or "half sick" have you ever thought that your kidneys may be the cause of your sickness?

It is easy to tell by setting aside your urine for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is satisfaction in knowing that the great remedy Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, fulfills every wish in relieving weak or diseased kidneys and all forms of bladder and urinary troubles. Not only does Swamp-Root give new life and activity to the kidneys—the cause of trouble, but by treating the kidneys it acts as a tonic for the entire constitution. If you need a medicine take Swamp-Root—it cures. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar, or by sending your address and the name of this paper with three two cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may have a sample bottle of this
