The fact that Madame Janussek is the greatest living actress of her type upon the stage to-day, and that she is the highest and most noble manifestation of the player's genius, renders her appearance of unusual interest to all lovers of great acting.

Spain Aggressive.

Washington, March 30.—A cable despatch from Vienna, says: "It is said, though the statement lacks confirmation, that Count Goluchowski, Imperial Minister of Foreign Affairs, has concluded an arrangement with the French Foreign Minister, with reference to the powers mediating with the United States in behalf of Spain. The initiative has been left with the French Foreign Minister, but the Austrian diplomatists at Madrid and Washington have been instructed to second his efforts to the utmost of their power. The improved relations between the United States and Spain are welcomed here."

Spain Aggressive.

Washington, Mar. 30.—Information has just been received here that Spain has dispatched another fleet to Porto Rico. It consists of two large battleships and a torpedo boat destroyer.

THE SITUATION.

A Family Jar.

A man and wife had an altercation at the corner of Main and Oak streets yesterday afternoon that attracted considerable attention. It appears that the husband had left his home with the determination of going some place to which the wife had objections and she followed him. At the corner stated the husband attempted an assault and the woman threw a handful of mud into his face. The latter stood ready for more fight, but his spouse fled to a convenient lavatory to clean his face and shirt.

Retailers Not to Be Bewared.

An important decision was handed down by Judges Biddle and Arnold, in the Philadelphia license suit, yesterday, and will prove of interest to brewers and retailers throughout the Commonwealth. The opinion, in substance, declares that a brewery company is entitled to separate licenses for each of its establishments, for which it must pay separately. It declares also that retailers who have licenses cannot legally hold stock in brewery companies.
