"All the News That's Fit to Print." Evening Herald

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 1808

GOVERNOR HASTINGS has cut short his western trip, and he is due at the state capitol to morrow morning. His arrival will be the signal for the onslaught of many Schuylkill delegations in the interest of rival candi dates for the Controllership.

QUAY is making an effort to strengthen his chances to succeed himself by placating the Combine followers with the appointment of It is questionable if he will not, by such a course, lose more faithful followers than he will gain. But, then, we need only refer to the memorable state chairmanship fight to find a motive.

NEVER more forcibly was the value of the evening paper over their morning contemporaries, more forcibly demonstrated than during the past month. They have been re ceiving and printing all the import ant news twelve hours before it appears in the morning dailles. In this connection it might be well to direct attention to the superiority of the HERALD'S news features over that of 'ts contemporaries, including the self-boasting Pottsyille newspapers. which furnish their Shenandoan readers with news that appears in these columns the day previous. Our county seat correspondence, furnished by one of the best equipped newspaper men of the county, is greatly appreciated by our thousands of readers in Shenandoah and the Mahanoy Valley. All this makes the evening paper more desirable to the average man, when his day's labor is over, and can at his ease read the news of the day. The HERALD is leading its contemporaries a killing pace, as its increasing circulation

The product of our anthracite mines ought to be distributed so as to keep the mine workers employed at least 300 days in the year.

Another well known fact is stated by Mr. Brownlee when he says there are too many miners in the anthracite region. This surplus of labor is made painfully evident when the paymaster comes around. Steady work at the mines, however, even with no reduction in the employed, would make the men who "cut coal" fairly comfortable. While stating these well known facts the Chief of

Letter from Mrs. Carrie F. Tremper that all Suffering Women Should Read.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries may result from sudden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. Rear Admiral Sicard's appearance before the board of retirement, it has leaked out, was ordered by the navy department. It was by no means in accordance with his personal wishes, nor, as was generally understood at the time, the result of his own application. In fact, the navy department ordered him point blank to have the board of retirement appointed, indicated its composition and ordered nim to appear before it. This, which is the real history of the case, is known to but few, and it cuts somewhat of a ensational phase upon Rear Admiral Sicard's withdrawal from the scene of netivity.

NOT ALWAYS UNDERSTOOD

A fact often overlooked, or not always under tood, is that women suffer as much from disressing kidney and bladder troubles as the men. The womb is situated back of and very close to the bladder, and for that reason any distress, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to fe tale weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided by setting urine aside for twentyfour hours; a sediment or settling is evidence
