THE LIGHT OF FREEDOM

For Thomas Campbell, Serving a Life Sentance For Murder.

ONCE IN THE GALLOWS' SHADOW.

Over Twenty Years Ago His Sentence Was Commuted on the Day Appointed For His Execution-A Newspaper Man's Humane Work.

Harrisburg, April 1.-The board of pardons recommended a pardon yester-day for Thomas Campbell, who has served 21 years and seven months in the Eastern penitentiary for the murder of Michael McNulty, at Carbondale, July 4, 1876. Campbell owes his pardon to John R. Wilson, a Philadelphia Evening Bulletin reporter who was sent by his paper during the latter end of 1896 to report on the condition of the inmates of the penitentiary at the time of Judge Gordon's investigation. Mr. Wilson visited over 100 cells, and was just about to leave the institution when he stopped opposite the cell in which Campbelt had been incarcerated for over 20 years, and spoke with the man who looked at him so earnestly througe the grating.

Campbell told the story of his crime with tears streaming down his face. He said he had fired one shot at a man while under the influence of drink, and had killed him. He had been friends with him most up to the moment of the offered for proof to the contrary. It shooting They got into a dispute as to never fails to cure Contagious Blood who was George Washington. Campbell said he was a Scotchman and his friend McNulty vowed that he was an Irishman. They were both drunk, and McNulty got angry and ordered Campbell away Campbell refused to go and McNulty put his hand on him to make him. In a fit of drunken anger Campbell pulled out his revolver and fired one shot. He was not an uncommon occurrence for the id not know that he had hit McNulty trains from the North to reach here from one

General Graham's Inspection Tour. Mobile, April 1.—General William Graham, commanding the department of the gulf, with headquarters at Atlanta, arived in this city yesterday from Pensacola to inspect the work at Fort Morgan. General Graham said that he had no official knowledge as to the troops, either colored or white, being ordered from Montana to Tortuga and was inclined to the belief that there was nothing in the report. He also was of the same opinion relative to the reported transfer of troops from Fort Sill to Mobile. He left here for New Orleans and Galveston on an in-

Nation's Financial Policy Snubbed. Annapolis, Md., April 1.-The Mary land house of delegates, with a Re-publican majority of 20, failed last night to pass a joint resolution endors-ing the financial policy of the national administration. The resolution passed the senate several days ago, was favorably reported by the house com-mittee on federal relations, and when it come up for passage was opposed by the Democrats. When put to a vote only 41 of the 67 Republican members voted for it, and it failed for want of a constitutional majority.

PROBING BANK FRAUDS. NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS.

Philadelphia, April L.—William Steels formerly easthier of the collapsed Chestnut Street National bank, churged by Bank Examiner Hardt with making false reports of the bank's condition to the comptroller of the currency, was given a hearing yesterday before United States Commissioner Edmunds, George M. Coffin, deputy comptroller of the currency, lank Examiner Hardt, George M. Earle, receiver of the bank, and all of the directors of the institution gave testimony.

According to the evidence the late William M. Singerly, president of the bank. The comptroller admonished wentered of the source him to cease borrowing. At this time and 5,000 frames fine impose conversation he had with Mr. Stosie in which the enshier said Mr. Singerly would come to the bank and got the acceptable to the government, so it is money from the each drawer without the knowledge of any of the directors, and would place collateral in a private drawer. This latter was placed in the books as cash items. Steele told the receivers that in doing this he was merely obeying orders.
