MAHANOY CITY.

The Lamentable Experience of a Detective From Shamokin.

Mahanoy City, April 8.—The unknown miscreant who escaped from David Reinhold, Chief of Police at Shamokin, on Wednesday last, was captured yesterday at Broad street and turned over to the custody of Detective Miles Dougherty, of Shamokin, who had gone to Mahanoy to apprehend the man.

The prisoner and Dougherty left Mahanoy on a late afternoon train for Shamokin, but becoming tired, and the time being rather long between drinks, the officer and prisoner dropped off from the train at one of the hotels. Detective Dougherty partook of a luncheon, while the prisoner sat near the door. Taking advantage of the detective's attention to his meal the prisoner slipped out and has not been recaptured. It is said Dougherty was under the influence of liquor at the time and in consequence he was unable to give chase. He wandered around the streets for several hours after the prisoner escaped, in company with a crowd of boys and officers repeatedly $10 to anyone who would return the fugitive to him.

This morning Dougherty saw a man running up the street and followed him to the end of the street at a very lively rate, and came to the conclusion that the party was his man. A team was hired at O'Hara's livery stable and a party set out to intercept the man at Fumano Grove. Upon arrival there it was found the man was a prominent citizen and was well known to the police.

George E. Beigel, a prominent resident of Lofy, died there on Wednesday after a lingering illness. He was 32 years old and was telegraph operator at the Lofy station for the past four years.

The funeral will take place at the home of his father, John E. Beigel, at 2 p. m. on Saturday. Services will be held at Barnesville.

Daniel F. Guyman has returned from a month's tour of the West, during which he visited New Mexico and Colorado.

The West End Gun Club will hold a shoot on the Tunnel Ridge washery to-morrow afternoon.

Another of Uncle Sam's Great Ships to be Given Away to Everybody.

Every reader of the great Philadelphia Sunday Press of next Sunday (April 10), will receive free a splendid picture of the famous United States Cruiser New York.

The picture is in eleven colors and is a complete illustration of the Maine to the Philadelphia which have been given away with previous numbers of the Sunday Press.

In addition there will be the great fifty-page paper, with eight-page comic section in colors and more exclusive features than can be found in any other Sunday paper. Among these will be the "Ocean Voyagers" which will be particularly attractive to young readers.

Older heads will be interested in the statement by President Palma, of the Cuban Junta, of how Cuban forces will help the United States if they are fighting.

General Van Rypen, of the United States Navy, tells how the "wounded" will be cared for, inventor of the "talkie" of Uncle Sam's gun, and McKibbin's pastor contributes a stirring article on national questions. There will be many other good things to be found in our paper. You had better order next Sunday's Press to-day.

Notices.

All parties desiring delivery of beer hereafter must have orders in before six o'clock, p. m. By order of BEER DRIVERS' ASSOCIATION. 4-3-01.

The other members of the class are Misses Lottie Bracey, Jennie Donaldson, Fessie Tobin and Lizzie Merrill and the Messrs. James Durkin, John Healey and Charles Reich. The commencement will be held in the early part of June in the Palace theatre.

Miss Morgan's Work.

Last evening the church was fairly filled with an attentive audience to listen to the earnest and faithful preaching of the truth as it is in Christ Jesus. A good spirit pervaded the whole meeting and at the close in answer to the earnest pleading with the unweary young man declared on the Lord's side.

During the evening W. Waters, leader of the choir sang two very affecting solos which were much appreciated. At the close of the meeting several of the new converts testified as to what the Lord had done for their souls. Miss Morgan will preach this evening. Service at 7:30. All will be welcome. R. R. ALLEN, pastor.

WATCHFUL THIEVES.

What They Did in Ten Minutes Last Evening.

A car of beer was brought in by the Pennsylvania R. R. freight train at about six o'clock last evening and run into the siding in front of Kettig's refrigerator, near the freight station. While the watchman, Henry Warnick, was lighting the switch lamps thieves broke open and robbed the car.

The watchman was not away from the place more than ten minutes. He kept the robbery by finding four or five kegs of beer on the ground where the car stood.
