OUR NEW WAR VESSEL

The Cruiser New Orleans Arrives Safely at Halifax.

PUT IN FOR A SUPPLY OF COAL

But It May Be That Commodore Howell, Who Had No Recent News of Our Controversy With Spain, Is Making a Strategic Movement.

Halifax, N. S., April 12.—The American man-of-war San Francisco and New Orleans, formerly the Brazilian ship Amazonas, arrived here yesterday afternoon. Both vessels left London on the 27th ult. and had a stormy passage during the last eight days. On Monday, the 4th, heavy winds and rain were met with. The ships were together up to that day, but on Tuesday became separated and did not come together until 24 hours had elapsed. The

THE NEW ORLEANS.

San Francisco came through all right, but the New Orleans experienced great difficulty, one of her starboard booms being smashed in the steering gear was for a time damaged. As she came up evidence of her rough passage was easily discernible. Preparations were quickly made to load the coal, and the ships will be ready to sail this afternoon.

While the reason given for coaling here was that the vessels were short of coal, anxiety may have prompted Commodore Howell to make this port. He had not heard a single word during the voyage regarding the trouble with Spain, and without anything definite being known, anxiety as to whether the ships might not be taken short-handed by a Spanish flotilla and at a big disadvantage. By coaling at Halifax instructions could be obtained as to the course to be pursued in case of war.

At the present time the crew of the San Francisco numbers 150 men, while the New Orleans has but 155.

Indians' Legal Victory.

Washington, April 12.—In the United States supreme court a decision was rendered yesterday by Justice Brown in the matter of the claim of the New York Indians to the proceeds of the sale of the two million acres of land formerly owned by the Indians in the state of Kansas. The lands were sold by the government and the proceeds covered into the treasury of the United States. The Indians brought suit and lost their case in the court of claims. Yesterday's opinion reverses the decision and gives them the money, amounting to about $1,200,000.

Mills Reopen With Small Forces.

New Bedford, Mass., April 12.—The 22 cotton cloth mills of this city which have been closed since Jan. 17, when the 9,000 operatives struck as the result of a 10 per cent reduction in wages, were opened yesterday to give the strikers an opportunity to return. All the corporations started their machinery, but in many of the mills barely a quarter of the working force went in. The aggressive strikers claim that they are ready to carry on the contest all summer, if necessary. The manufacturers appear indifferent as to the outcome, while the business men are very anxious lest the attempt should end in failure.

Sailors Expect a Declaration of War.

Key West, April 12.—The confirmation of the firm stand taken by President McKinley in the Cuban crisis, as shown by his message to congress, was received with profound satisfaction here. Naval officers think they are now likely to be in Havana tomorrow. Some of them go so far as to claim that the president's message is so warlike that their only speculation is as to whether Spain will weaken. All the sailors expect that the next bulletin from the north will bring a declaration of war, and they are wildly jubilant at the prospect.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give to those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 25 and 50c. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

CONGRESS AWAITS

The Report of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Washington, April 12.—The future of the relations of the United States with Spain and to Cuba now rests with congress, the representative body of the American people. What course the elected men composing it will pursue cannot just now be foretold. The foreign affairs committee of both houses now have the subject in their control, and after due deliberation will report to their respective branches what they consider should be the attitude of the United States on the grave question presented. Early action by the committee is expected, but exactly when it may be looked for is not now determined. The full responsibility of the subject was placed upon congress when President McKinley yesterday transmitted to it a carefully prepared and anxiously awaited message relating to our negotiations with Spain with regard to the warfare in Cuba, and drawing therefrom his personal conclusions and recommendations.

No message in recent years, not even that of President Cleveland on Venezuela, nor President Harrison on Chile, caused such widespread and intense interest. No message was ever listened to with more close attention by both galleries and members at both ends of the Capitol. That it did not create profound enthusiasm may have been due to the fact that the news had been accurately forecasted or to a disappointment among those who wanted Cuban independence and immediate reprisal upon Spain for the destruction of the Maine. For a long time a large majority in both houses have favored recognition of the independence of Cuba, for more than two years, as voted in resolutions passed by congress, the recognition of belligerency has been sought. Both of these propositions were antagonized in the message, and consequently in this regard the message did not accord with the majority sentiment.

The message left congress very much at sea because of the disparagement in views between it and the executive, an obstacle hard to surmount unless, as now seems probable, congress sees its course to lie in accord with the president's recommendations. It is generally believed that the president would have been authorized to intervene with the army and navy had it not been for the concluding paragraphs of the document, which announced the latest phase of diplomatic negotiations.

The senate committee on foreign relations immediately after its session, but reached no definite conclusion. From the fact that the Republican members held a consultation after the meeting adjourned, and what was said regarding it, the inference was drawn that some strong measure was necessary in order to carry any action by the government, through the senate, a declaration of war was talked of, and a declaration that the people of Cuba should be free, coupled with authorization to the president to bring this about by armed intervention, was suggested.

It is well known that any proposition advanced by the president in connection with an amendment declaring the independence of the present Cuban government, and to so frame a resolution as to carry a majority of the senate and at the same time meet the recommendations of the president is the result which the majority of the committee is trying to secure. The conservative senators also met in the afternoon and determined to oppose any national measure if it should be reported by the foreign relations committee.

They will oppose by debate any recognition of independence of the present government and declaration of war, and will consent to action only along the lines of the recommendations of the president as to intervention at his discretion.

BLADDER TROUBLES.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one or two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

SAMPLE SENT FREE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. It is conforming to know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root fulfills every wish in quickly curing bladder and urinary troubles. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding or stinging pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover postage on the bottle. Mention HEALD and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

LONDON PRESS COMMENTS.

The Daily News Says War and the Standard Predicts Peace.
London, April 12.—The Daily News, commenting editorially upon the president's message to congress, says: "The message is a vigorous and able document. Undoubtedly it means war unless Spain agrees to make final terms with the insurgents and to recall her troops from Cuba. It must convince Europe that the case for American intervention is a very strong one. President McKinley's refusal to recognize the independence of Cuba on the ground that it would nullify America's claim to interfere in sound sense and a safeguard for the English, but Spain must honorably cooperate with him if war is to be averted."

LEES' TRIUMPHAL PROGRESS.

The Patriotic South Wildly Greets Our Consul General.
Waycross, Ga., April 12.—Consul General Lee's special train left Tampa at 1:30 yesterday, and every station along the route lavished tributes upon him. The country for miles in the interior furnished ardent admirers, who in cars, on foot, and on horseback, ladies filled the car with bouquets, accompanied by addresses expressive of their admiration. "Where is Lee?" was the cry from Tampa to this place, and until his appearance the crowds could not control their impetuosity. Whenever the general stopped to the rear platform outbursts of applause greeted him. Before reaching Jasper, Fla., three telegrams were received on the train urging him to make his appearance, so that the people could see him. Arriving there, the local company of state militia and a company of militia met him, with a wild crowd, met him.

"A thousand welcomes to you, General Lee, as a brave man; a thousand welcomes to our old Confederate comrade; ten thousands of welcomes to you, sir, for your admirable official course as our consul at Havana," said one of the army bands. "I thank you, sir," said Lee, "for your kind expressions. I think the American people for the commendation they have shown my administration as your consul general at Havana. I have never really known until today how united the people are in sanctioning my course."

In the afternoon he endeavored to get some sleep, but it was impossible. The crowds would besiege the train and even attempt to force the doors of the private car in their frantic efforts to see the popular general. One armed veteran said: "I am a rebel, but I want you to do it to sound the bugle and I will be with you, saddle and boots. Don't put it off too long, general. Let us go to haul down the Spanish flag." This sentiment was general all along the line.

Savannah, Ga., April 12.—At Savannah more than 5,000 persons were at the station to see General Lee. The crowd was enthusiastic, and a short speech was made by the general, being frequently applauded. Orders were given here for operators north of this city to withhold all information as to the whereabouts of the general, in order to prevent the party being disturbed. The party retired immediately after leaving Savannah.

General Lee's train will reach Washington at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

DoWelle's Malt Extract Paris.

Dolgeville, N. Y., April 12.—The (the) of the Paris of Alfred Dolge & Co., the well-known manufacturers of fruit and other specialties, was a great success prior to the month of April. The firm's factory is located here, and inside they conducted a large retail business in New York City. The assets and liabilities are not given, but a conservative estimate places the former at about $500,000. Alfred Dolge was the founder of Dolgeville, having established his business here 20 years ago. The growth of the village has been largely due to manufacturing interests controlled by him. Mr. Dolge said that he was forced to make an abandonment on account of the war since and the difficulty to procure money to carry on his business.
