Surveyor of the Port. President McKinley yesterday sent to the Senate the name of Representative Perry M. Lytle, of Huntingdon, Pa., as Surveyor of the Port at Philadelphia. The other applicant for this position was John F. Finney, of Pottsville. This is the second time the United States Senator has turned down the Schuylkill county candidate. It was reported some time ago that this appointment would not be made until after the state convention, and that neither Lytle nor Finney would be appointed, but that Dave Martin's name Powers would be chosen. This arrangement seems to have fallen through, and the appointment of Lytle is somewhat of a surprise here in Schuylkill. Mr. Brumm was opposed to Finney receiving this place, in fact any appointment, as it interfered with his plans.

It is said that Brumm called on the President to protest against this selection.

The Philadelphia Record says: "The anti-Quaker leaders of Schuylkill county now assent, however, that they have turned against Mr. Finney. They say he promised them that he would oppose Congressman Brumm, but editorialists in Mr. Finney's newspaper, promulgated by the Keenan baronet near the Schuylkill county line, indicate his purpose to support Mr. Brumm for re-nomination."

We leave it to the public to judge as to which is the best horse to ride on, the one which has the One Price system, with goods marked at the lowest possible figures, or the horse that has a dozen or more different prices on the same article. L. Goldin.

The war dispatches and the illustrations will be more complete and reliable than can be found in any other paper. This can be fully relied upon. In addition there will be noteworthy special articles by Speaker Thomas B. Reed, President Patton, of Princeton, and other eminent writers, and now that the base ball season has opened, more base ball and general sporting news than can be found in any other paper.

Resolved, That in the death of Patrick M. Noon, the schools of this district has lost one of its most ardent supporters; the surviving members of the School Board a wise counselor; the teachers a staunch friend, and the community an upright citizen.

Resolved, That as no sympathetic words of ours can mitigate to any extent the sorrow of the bereaved, we can only commend them for comfort and consolation in that loving Heart that furnishes a balm for every wounded breast.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the EVENING HERALD, of Shenandoah, and the Press and Times, of Girardville, and that a copy suitably engrossed be presented to the family of the deceased.
