Our Country, First, Last and Forever

One hundred and twenty-five thousand volunteers to Spain match it

From the tops of many buildings in Seaside, the stars and stripes are floating to the breeze

The Seaside military boys will give good account of themselves before they return home. They are true blue and soldiers to the manner born.

CHARLES ESLEY SMITH, recently appointed Postmaster General, has withdrawn as editor-in-chief of the Philadelphia Press, a position he has held most acceptably for many years.

GEN. GOMEZ says if the United States will agree to supply him with an abundant supply of rifles, a few good batteries, and plenty of good ammunition, it will not be necessary for us to send a large army to Cuba.

The retirement of John Sherman, Secretary of State, closes the political career of one of America's foremost statesmen. He has served his country long and faithfully, and he goes into well-earned retirement enjoying the respect and honor of his countrymen.

A cloud of concern is expressed for the safety of the Oregon, now on her way up the coast to Cuba. It is said to be, however, that should she meet the Spanish torpedo boat Terentio she will arrive at her destination on schedule time. The Oregon was built to fight.

DEMOCRATIC candidates seeking Senatorial honors in this district are becoming so numerous that a compromise candidate is being considered. The name of Hon. M. C. Watson, of Iowa, has frequently been mentioned in this connection.

During these days of excitement all sorts of rumors will be in circulation, and people should receive them with due allowance. Because the yellow journals publish sensational news, making that a feature, is no good reason why the newspapers generally should be censured, and men holding public positions advise their hearers not to read the daily papers, nor believe anything they publish. The very men who make these charges are the first to enlist the press in behalf of some movement in which they are peculiarly interested.

And nine times out of ten they ask this service to be given gratuitously. The HERALD receives its news through the Associated Press, the most reliable news agency in the country. Their special correspondent on the press despatch boat Dauntless, is with the North Atlantic squadron, and their reports can be relied on. The average newspaper critic is generally the man who does not pay for his paper, but borrows his neighbor's.

An A Blockade. The United States has blockaded a number of ports on the islands of Cuba, including Havana. Under the naval code of laws a blockade must be proclaimed so that ships of all nationalities may be notified of its existence. Ships already at sea when proclamation is made must upon arrest be notified and permitted to depart for some other than the blockaded port. Until such notice the ship is not liable to capture. Ships so notified, and all ships sailing after proclamation of blockade has been made, are liable to capture upon attempting to pass the blockade. In case of capture they and their cargoes are confiscated, but neither their officers nor seamen, if the ship carries a neutral flag, are subject to any other penalty. They are guilty of no crime.

No neutral nation is bound to respect any blockade till it has been made effective. If it is not so neutral ships are liable to capture by the ships attempting to trade with "paper" blockaded ports. Ships of the enemy are subject to capture anywhere at sea, without reference to the ports from or to which they are going. Neutral ships are subject to capture only when trying to break the blockade.

CUBAN RECOGNITION

Defeated by the Vote of the Senate.

SHERMAN'S RESIGNATION.

The Veteran Premier Will Be Succeeded by Judge Day.

J. B. MOORE WILL SUCCEED DAY.

Washington, April 25.—Congress yesterday formally declared war in existence between the United States and Spain, and the bill was promptly signed by the president. The senate passed the naval appropriation bill carrying large amounts of money for the improvement of our sea fighting arm of the armed services. The full arm recognition bill was passed by the senate and the speaker to conference. Secretary Sherman resigned as chief of the state department, to be succeeded by Assistant Secretary Day, and the latter by John B. Moore, of New York, an acknowledged authority on international law, and the war department edited on several states for their quota to the volunteer army of the United States. These marks up the important events of the day.

The bill declaring war went through the house without a dissenting vote, without a roll call and without a word of debate. There was no excitement, no event so grand or stirring as it was only in the great cheer that went up from floor and galleries when Speaker Wood announced the passage of the resolution declaring the war.

Great Britain and Austria Protest Against the Ventura's Capture.

Washington, April 25.—The British and the Austrian legations, it is understood, will represent to the state department that the capture of the seer Buena Ventura by the Nashville was unjustifiable. It is claimed that the Buena Ventura belonged to British owners, who will seek to secure redress through the British embassy here. The case is further complicated by the fact that the Spanish ship, with a British cargo, was carrying between two American ports, so that Americans participate to some extent in a loss occasioned by the condemnation of the Buena Ventura as a prize. The diplomatic action will be confined, it is understood, to submitting the protest to the state department. It then will be for the prize court to decide as to the weight of the protest.

At the leading embassies and legations opinion is somewhat divided as to the legality of the seizure of the Buena Ventura, the Pedro and such other ships as were taken prior to noon on Saturday. In one high diplomatic circle it is held that the capture of the Buena Ventura at the time of these seizures, so that they cannot be considered war prizes. To sustain this view it is pointed out that the course of Spain in severing diplomatic relations did not create a state of war. At present France and Venezuela have renounced their diplomatic relations as a result of differences between them, but it is pointed out that there is no war between France and Venezuela, and the termination of their diplomatic relations has never been so regarded by other parties. On the other hand, another leading embassy holds that war now exists, and has existed for several days.

Olympia and Baltimore Sail.

Hong Kong, April 25.—The United States cruisers Olympia and Baltimore have left this port. It is said that Commodore Dewey and the United States consul, Mr. William E. Hunt, protested that they had not authority to leave, and they had not necessary to the United States government of the declaration of war. Although it is not so stated, the United States squadron was apparently required to leave by the British authorities in consequence of the proclamation of neutrality. It is said that Commodore Dewey has been ordered to await definite instructions before attacking Manila.

Left Matanzas Harriedly.

New York, April 25.—The Ward Line steamer Villancoba, from Mexico and Matanzas, Cuba, arrived at quarantine last night. The Villancoba, chartered to Tampoco, April 15, left Matanzas on the morning of the 21st. The steamer remained in that port about 24 hours. The greatest excitement prevailed on shore, and troops and artillerymen were plainly visible from the steamer's deck during on the shore. Spanish officials were seen in the harbor, the regular buoys were being removed, and every preparation being made to put the harbor in a defensive condition. The steamer departed quietly early in the morning, leaving behind more than 4,000 bags of sugar and other passengers who were booked to sail by the steamer. Only three passengers succeeded in getting on board.
