MAHANOY CITY.

Last Night and This Morning.

Mahaney City. April 28 .- Fully 4,000 people merana to witness the departure for Mt. Gretna of Company E, 5th Reg't, N. G. P. The scene was one that will never be for-gotten by the residents. Every available point around the dupot was taken up by apecwas covered with people. At 7:15 this morning the Citizens band, playing "Marching Through Georgia," marched to the headquarters of Severn Post No. 116, G. A. R., and both organizations then proceeded to armory hall, where Co. E. headed by Capt. Coursey, fell in line and the march to the station was taken up. Upon arrival at the destination the company boarded two passenger cars tional Guards to move. The train from Grardville arrived a little later. When it came it picked up the cars containing Company E and amid great cheering and the calving of hats and flags, the train steamed way for Tamagon.

The farewell meeting tendered to Co. E in Kaier's opera house last night was a grand meess. An immense crowd of people sought almission but only half were successful. In the crush a hinge was broken from one of and participated in the parads that proceded it. There were displays of fireworks in all parts of the town. "The Sporting Duchess," The celebrated actress, Ffolliott Paget, ill play the part of the Sporting Duchess in sented to-morrow evening at Knier's opera-house, Mahanoy City. There is no actress in this country who could so admirably portray the character of this eccentric English lady, which was taken from life. The original was the Duchess of Montrose, an occuntric titled lady, who used to patronize the race track, owned a large stable of race borses, Seven boys ranging from 13 to 17 years of wore very loud costumes, placed her own age were arraigned before Justice Shoemaker bets, and was to all intents and purposes a typical sporting character. Miss Paget, who is celebrated in rollicking and robust roles, is seen to great advantage in this part. This will be the dramatic event of the present season in this county and no one should mis seeing this mammoth production.
